CHURCH BELLS.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are invited for the completion of Christ Church Tower, in which to hang the peal of bells (now in the colony) given to the parish by the Churchmen of England. The completion of the tower by the parishioners themselves has been hitherto delayed by pressing claims for more important objects, and must still be impracticable, at the present cost of building, unless assisted by contributions from others.

THE SHIP GENERAL VEAZIE,

468 tons register, will carry 1000 tons.

MR. WILLIAM DEAN has been favoured with instructions from Messrs. Hussey, Bond and Hale, to sell by auction, at the Australian Auction Mart, on FRIDAY next, the 12th of August, at 12 o'clock precisely,

The A1 American-built ship GENERAL VEAZIE.

The General Veazie is a very superior class of American vessel, and was built expressly as a line of packet ship for the China trade, and is exceedingly well finished. She has just returned from San Francisco, where she discharged a cargo of 950 tons without damaging a single package. Her sailing qualities are first rate, and her trip from New York to San Francisco was the shortest on record at the time of her arrival at San Francisco. She is coppered and copper-fastened, and exceedingly well found in stores, including nearly a new suit of sails, two bower anchors, with 90 fathoms chain to each; her standing and running rigging are in excellent state of preservation, and having had a thorough over-haul previous to her leaving San Francisco, with the intention of sending her to China for a cargo of tea, is fit for a cruize to any part of the world without any additional expense, having 269 tons stone ballast on board, and good water casks, capable of holding 14,000 gallons water, with fittings for 200 passengers: equal to about 6000 feet pine boards.

As a coal ship she would clear several thousand pounds each trip to either of the neighbouring colonies.

For the timber trade she is well adapted, having large port holes, and would carry an immense cargo of large spars, &c.

As a store ship she is unequalled, having every requisite, with large hatchways, patent windlass, hoisting jacks; there is also a large house on deck, capable of accommodating from 30 to 40 people, which, of itself, would be of an immense value.

She has been surveyed since her arrival in Sydney, preparatory to her taking a charter to the Eastward, and pronounced by the Surveyor to be in every respect fit for the voyage, a copy of which certificate can be seen, with her list of stores, on application at the office of Messrs. Hussey, Bond, and Hale, 22, Macquarie-place; or, to

WILLIAM DEAN,

5480 427, George-street.

Auckland.—Arrivals: June 24. Commodore, from Sydney. 29. Deborah, from Melbourne. July 11. Algerine, from Sydney. 14. Will o'The Wisp, and Kestrell, from Melbourne: Tartar, from San Francisco April 22, with 200 passengers. Departures.—June 22. Invincible, for Melbourne. 28. Cachmere. July 4. Kirkwood, for Melbourne.

The barque Tartar, Captain Madigan, from San Francisco, has put in here for fresh supplies, which her long passage rendered necessary. She left San Francisco on the 22nd April, arrived at Honolulu on the 7th, and left that port on the 12th May, and has since touched at the Navigators' Islands and Norfolk Island. On the passage through the Islands she experienced light winds and calms; since leaving Norfolk Island she has had continued heavy northern weather. Spoke no vessels on the passage.—The barque Commodore, Captain James Broadfoot, which arrived yesterday morning, sailed from Sydney on the 11th instant, with upwards of 2000 sheep. She has lost only about 200 out of this large number, the most of which died shortly after the vessel left the harbour. She experienced coarse weather throughout. Captain Broadfoot reports having sighted a large vessel, under close reefed topsails, off the Bay of Islands.—New Zealander.

The William Alfred, Captain Tinlay, was working into Wellington Harbour on the 21st ult.

The Advice has had a great deal of bad weather outside, losing her two boats and carrying away bulwarks.

The Thomas, cutter, Captain Snow, which sailed hence for Behrings Straits, is reported by the Sable Chief as having put into the Clarence River leaky, and with loss of boat, &c.

The cargo of the Mary Nicholson, from Newcastle, consists of 140 tons coals, 15 tons hay, 6000 bushels grain, 40 tons tallow, 15 tons bran, 68 pigs, 1 ton bacon, half ton cheese, 3900 shingles.

The President, in getting under weigh yesterday morning, got ashore on Garden Island. The pilot was not on board at the time, no signal having been made for him. She had not got off at sunset.

In Mr. M'Kean's letter respecting the Cleopatra, inserted in yesterday's Herald, for "sixteen" days' detention at Port Phillip, read "eleven" days.

The fine new ketch Phoenician was sold yesterday, at auction, by Mr. William Dean, to Mr. Andrew Wilson, of George-street, for £980.

The Moa, from Auckland, reports having exchanged signals with H.M.S. Serpent in latitude 34° 36 south, longitude 159° 15 east, on 31st ultimo, and spoke the barque Robert Syers, for Sydney, on 1st instant, in latitude 34° 11 south, 158° 2 east; saw two barques off Newcastle on Sunday last, steering to the southward.

STEALING.—On last Friday evening a mahogany writing-desk, worth about £3 10s., was stolen from the residence of Mr. W. Brown, George-street North.—About 8 o'clock on Monday evening constable Rochford, on duty in Spring-street, took into custody a girl on suspicion of having stolen a bundle of miscellaneous articles—sheets, window blinds, tea, sugar, a jug, &c.—she was then carrying. She said they were given to her by one of Mr. Cohen's servants; took her to the house, and pointed out the women. Mrs. Cohen identified some of the things as belonging to her, and gave into custody her female servants, Ann and Honora Anglan, for stealing them, and on searching their boxes other articles of small value were found. The three were yesterday brought before the bench on the charge. The girl was discharged, and the two women committed for trial.—An old woman named Brown was sent to gaol for three months for stealing from a shop in Clarence-street a piece of bacon worth 4s. 6d.

CAMPBELLTOWN.—The Justices in Petty Sessions assembled at Campbelltown have appointed District Constable Ezekiel Wells, to be Inspector of Weights and Measures for the Police District of Campbelltown.

COLONIAL STATISTICS.

No. V.—AGRICULTURE.

The Return showing the quantity of land in cultivation and the produce thereof (exclusive of orchards and gardens), in the colony of New South Wales, embraces the sixteen years commencing with 1837 and ending with 1852.

When examining this department of our statistics last year, we had the satisfaction of observing that, notwithstanding the gold excitement which had prevailed during the greater part of the previous year, 1851, our agricultural operations had, on the whole, and in the main staples of subsistence, considerably increased in that year. The same satisfaction cannot be expressed in the present instance. On the contrary, we much regret to find that the breadth of land under cultivation in 1852 was in every particular less than in the previous year, in most particulars less than in either of the three previous years, and in some less than in any of the previous seven.

The comparison between the last two years stands thus:

LAND IN CULTIVATION.

	1851. Acres.	1852. Acres.	Decrease. Acres.
Wheat	82,110	75,942	6,168
Maize	25,017	18,609	6,408
Barley	6,725	5,084	1,641
Oats	2,470	1,629	841
Rye	245	163	82
Millet	54	9	45
Potatoes	4,079	3,690	389
Tobacco	731	58	673
Sown for Hay	30,626	25,459	5,167
Totals	152,057	130,643	21,414

This is a melancholy falling off. In the two main articles of our cereal tillage, wheat and maize, we have a decrease on the year of no less than 12,576 acres, and of 21,414 acres in the whole quantity under cultivation. The land in cultivation for wheat, shows a decrease of seven and a half per cent; for maize, more than twenty-five per cent.; for potatoes, nine and a half per cent.; for tobacco, ninety-two per cent,; while the total shows a decrease of more than fourteen per cent.

As regards the cultivation of maize, a grain second in importance only to wheat, it is a very remarkable fact, that the breadth of land employed for that purpose last year was less than in any of the previous fourteen years, and exceeded the quantity in the first year comprised in the returns, 1837, only by 228 acres.

And with regard to potato cultivation, it was last year less extensive than in 1842, when the population was only about one-half of its present members.

The cultivation of tobacco has fallen off immensely. In 1837 there were planted 533 acres, and in 1852 only 58 acres.

From the extent of land in cultivation let us turn to the quantities of PRODUCE.

	1851.	1852.	Decrease.
Wheat, bus.	1,407,465	1,194,480	212,985
Maize, "	717,053	554,631	162,422

Potatoes, tons	13,644	12,772	872
Tobacco, cwt.	12,530	1,978	10,552
Hay, tons	36,605	20,733	15,872

Here is another melancholy picture. A falling off in wheat of nearly 213,000 bushels, or upwards of fifteen per cent.; in maize, of 162,400 bushels, or nearly twenty-three per cent; in potatoes, of 872 tons, or more than six per cent; and in hay, of nearly 16,000 tons, or more than forty-three per cent.

Produce per Acre.	1851.	1852.
Wheat, bushel	17·1	15·7
Maize, ditto	28·7	29·8
Barley, ditto	19·9	15·8
Oats, ditto	19·9	14·0
Potatoes, cwt	3·3	3·5
Hay, tons	1·2	0·8

It would thus appear that, while the average produce per acre of wheat, barley, oats, and hay, was last year below, the produce of maize and potatoes was somewhat above, that of the previous year.

In 1851, the produce of wheat averaged about seven bushels and a half per head of the population; last year, it averaged less than six bushels.

Estimating the consumption of wheat at nine bushels per annum for each individual, the quantities required compared with the quantities produced will show the deficiency in each of the last two years.

	1851.	1852
Required	1,685,200	1,872,000
Produced	1,407,500	1,194,500
Deficiency	277,700	677,500

Thus the deficiency of last year exceeded that of the previous year by nearly 400,000 bushels! And yet our imports of wheat last year were less than those of the previous year by 32,000 bushels; while the quantity of bread and flour which we exported last year exceeded the quantity we imported by 2,351,400 pounds weight!

THE DEPARTURE OF LIEUTENANT-GENERAL WYNYARD.—Yesterday morning, under a salute from our batteries, the gallant General who has commanded the forces in Australasia and its extensive dependencies during the last five years, embarked on board the Argo, on his return to Europe. Himself, and Mrs. Wynyard, and all branches of their family, carry with them the highest esteem, and the "golden opinions" which they have won from every class of the colonists of New South Wales.

CHIPPENDALE.—Purchasers are reminded that a house and land, at the corner of Botany-street and Wellington-street, Chippendale, will be sold by Purkis and Lambert at their rooms this day, at 12 o'clock precisely.

NEW ZEALAND.

We have Auckland papers to the 16th ultimo.

One fact is to be gathered from them and one only, Lieutenant-Colonel Wynyard has been elected Superintendent of the Province of Auckland. This is the staple of all the leading articles, of the domestic news, of the correspondence, and many of the advertisements.

The polling took place on the 1st July, and the following was the result:—

	Wynyard.	Brown.
City of Auckland	245	336
Suburbs of Auckland	59	26
Pensioner settlements	367	141
Northern division	75	145
Southern division	131	121
Bay of Islands	45	51
Total votes	922	820

In Auckland itself it will be seen Mr. Brown had a large majority; but in the out districts, especially the pensioner settlement, Colonel Wynyard was far ahead of his opponent. The Southern Cross, which belongs to the defeated candidate, considers the "people" have been defeated by military despotism; while the New Zealander considers the "people" have triumphed over an attempt to make them dupes of a would-be dictator. There can be no doubt, however respectable and influential many of Colonel Wynyard's supporters may be, that the scale was really turned in his favour by the military element.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

TUESDAY.

The SPEAKER took the chair at twenty minutes past three.

MESSAGES.

The following messages from the Governor-General were received and read:—

In compliance with the address of the Legislative Council, dated 29th July, 1853, the Governor-General recommends to the Council the several appropriations contained in the accompanying schedule, proposed to be annexed to a Bill "to confer a Constitution on New South Wales and to grant a Civil List to her Majesty" in lieu of the schedule A appended to 13 and 14 Victoria cap. 59, and as an equivalent for the surrender of all territorial, casual, and other revenues of the Crown from whatever source arising within this colony. Ordered to be printed together with the accompanying schedule.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act of the Imperial Parliament 5 and 6 Victoria cap. 76, the Governor-General transmits to the Legislative Council the draft of a Bill intituled "A Bill to amend and continue for a limited time the Act of Council 9 Victoria, No. 6, regulating the exportation of gunpowder and warlike stores." Ordered to be printed, together with the accompanying Bill, and taken into consideration to-morrow week.

The Governor-General deems it his duty to place before the Legislative Council and to recommend to its attentive consideration the copy of a Despatch which he has received from his Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria on the subject of the license fee now charged in this colony and Victoria to persons engaged in searching for gold on the waste lands of the Crown. Ordered to be printed, together with the accompanying Despatch, and referred to the Select Committee on the Gold Fields Management Bill.

The Governor-General lays before the Legislative Council the copy of a correspondence which has taken place between the Colonial Treasurer, his Excellency, and her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, relating to an application made last year by the former officer for an increase of salary, and which the Governor-General begs to recommend to the favourable consideration of the Council. Ordered to be printed, together with the accompanying documents, and taken into consideration on next Thursday week.

PAPERS.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY laid on the table certain correspondence with the Directors of the Sydney Railway Company, in continuation of the correspondence laid upon the table in the last session. Ordered to be printed.

ROYAL ASSENT.

The SPEAKER reported that his Excellency the Governor-General had been pleased, in the name and on behalf of her Majesty, to assent to the Wesleyan Methodist Trusts Bill.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

On the motion of Mr. COWPER, further leave of absence was granted to Mr. Oakes, on account of illness.

THE CORPORATION.

Mr. WENTWORTH presented a petition from certain citizens of Sydney, praying for an amendment of the Corporation Act. Petition received.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

The SPEAKER said that, as a call of the House had been ordered for to-day, it would precede all other business, and he therefore directed the Clerk to call over the names of honorable members.

The Clerk of the Council then called over the names, when the following gentlemen failed to answer to their names: Messrs. Thomas Barker, Edward Cox, J. Dobie, H. Hughes, J. Macarthur, W. Macarthur, T. A. Murray, G. Oakes, and R. J. Smith.

Mr. Dobie, was absent on account of illness, and a medical certificate was handed in by Captain King to that effect. Messrs. Murray and Oakes, have leave of absence. The Colonial Secretary stated that Mr. Hughes had resigned his seat; and with reference to Messrs. J. and W. Macarthur, it was stated by Mr. Cooper, that their absence was probably owing to the state of the weather, and he had no doubt they were on the road.

Mr. HOLROYD, referring to the standing orders, moved that the absentees be fined £20 each.

The SPEAKER suggested that the names should be called over again at a later hour of the evening.

Mr. NICHOLS said the hon. member could not move for the imposition of a fine, without first giving notice; and, moreover, it was against natural justice to impose a fine without giving an opportunity to the party to show cause against it, by explaining the reasons of his absence.

Mr. COWPER suggested that the names should be called again later in the evening. His object in moving for a call of the House, had been not so much in reference to any particular measure, as to call attention to the laxity which prevailed on the part of the hon. members in the discharge of their public duties. He did not remember any previous session in which hon. gentlemen had been so careless and so remiss as in the present, (hear, hear), and considering the readiness with which leave of absence was granted by the House, he did think they ought at least to go through the form of asking for leave. With reference to two of the absentees he knew they had gone to England, and another was on a visit to Moreton Bay. At all events, before the House proceeded to impose fines, he thought it would be wise to consult the Standing Orders Committee as to the power of the House to enforce their payment (hear, hear.)

Mr. PARKER said he believed some misapprehension existed in the minds of two of his hon. friends, as to the hour when the call of the House would be made, he having informed them that the order of the day stood after the notice of motion.

Mr. MARTIN, referring to May's Parliamentary Practice, said the proper course would be to call the names over again, and if honorable members did not answer, then to appoint a day to consider what course the House should take.

Mr. HOLROYD begged to withdraw his motion, being satisfied with the explanations which had been given.

Mr. DARVALL said the House ought to pass on to the next business. The neglect of honorable members to attend would be dealt with by another tribunal; and he did not see that the House was bound to take any farther steps in this matter, more especially as they could do nothing effectual.

After a few words from Mr. NICHOLS and Mr. COWPER, the conversation dropped.

MR. W. H. MOORE.

Mr. NICHOLS postponed until Friday his motion relative to the claim of Mr. Moore for compensation.

AUSTRALASIAN COAL MINING COMPANY.

Mr. COWPER postponed his motion for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate this company.

BLAKE'S AND MEEHAN'S MARRIAGE VOIDING BILL.

Mr. WENTWORTH, in moving that this Bill be read a second time, would briefly refer to what had taken place with reference to this subject last session. It would be in the recollection of the House that a motion was made by him, and a petition presented with a view to the introduction of a Bill to declare void an alleged marriage between Emmeline Emma Blake and Patrick Meehan. That Bill was read a first time, but at the suggestion of his hon. and learned friend the Attorney-General an address to the Governor-General was adopted, praying his Excellency to submit the Bill to their Honors the Judges for their opinion as to the power of the House to pass such a measure. The Bill had accordingly been referred to the Judges, who had unanimously declared their opinion that the Council had full power to pass such a Bill. Now, this being the opinion of the Judges, he could not conceive that a more urgent occasion could exist for the exertion of the power of this House. This case was one in which there had been a most scandalous and disgraceful conspiracy to bring about a marriage, and the evidence taken before the Select Committee of this House showed it to be a case of the grossest and most abominable fraud. Moreover, it was in the knowledge of the House that the parties had been convicted of fraud, and were still, he believed, undergoing the punishment which was justly awarded to them. (Hear, hear.) This child—for child he could only call her—was only 14 years of age at the time; and, although her parents were in Sydney, it had been represented to the clergyman who celebrated the marriage that they were in California; and he had been deceived by a false declaration of guardianship, and by a statement that both the parties were of the same persuasion. The main object of the conspiracy undoubtedly was to obtain the property to which the young girl, who was the only daughter of a person of considerable wealth, was supposed to be entitled; and in view of so atrocious a case of fraud, he hoped the House would not hesitate to exert its power to defeat the objects of the conspirators. He moved that the Bill be read a second time.

Mr. HOLROYD seconded the motion.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL said that, although, when the Bill was before the House last session, he had expressed himself unfavourably towards it, the evidence which had been taken by the Select Committee had now satisfied him that the measure was perfectly justified. (Hear, hear.) The conspiracy had been most properly defeated, but on the trial it certainly had appeared to him that the girl was a willing party to the fraud, and he feared that any hasty legislation on this subject would open the door to a very undesirable looseness on the subject of matrimonial contracts. The evidence taken before the Select Committee, however, who had an opportunity of questioning the girl more closely, certainly showed that she had been grossly deceived herself, and the case made out was very strong and very serious; and he was now of opinion that the voiding of this marriage, or alleged marriage, would not be a dangerous precedent. (Hear, hear.) He should, therefore, support the second reading of this Bill; but he believed it would be necessary, in compliance with the royal instructions, that the Governor-General should reserve the bill for Her Majesty's assent.

Mr. MARSH warned the house against legislating on particular cases in the way now proposed. The greatest practical evils would ensue if a measure were passed which would immediately open the door to innumerable applications for divorce. An attorney, a friend of his, had only recently been applied to by a man who wanted to be divorced from his wife, and who asked him whether £40 would do it. (Hear and laughter.) Nothing, in his opinion, could be more dangerous than giving facilities for divorce. He had heard stories of women who had been married to three or four different diggers; and of one who had six wedding rings in the space of seven months. (Laughter.) Of course these stories might not be true. (Laughter.) Divorce had now become very rare in England. He believed the first case was in Lord Thurlow's time, and the last was that of Miss Turner, 25 years ago. It would be a good thing if no divorce was allowed under any circumstances. At present it was confined entirely to the upper classes, and morality had so improved of late that it had become almost unnecessary. He could not but think that it was a great mercy to the lower classes that they were practically excluded from obtaining divorces; and the result was, that never was conjugal fidelity so well observed. With regard to the case before the House, he believed it was a very bad one (hear, hear); but there were runaway matches every day in which the circumstances were quite as bad. (Oh! oh.) Certainly the age of the girl was an aggravation, but having regard to the physical condition of the climate, this consideration was not serious; and in England it often happened that young girls of 16 or 17 were run away with, and in all these cases there were a villain of a man and a couple of intriguing women concerned. With regard to the money question, that could easily be got over, because the father might settle his property on his daughter for her own use; or if he made no will, no doubt the House would take measures to prevent this villain from obtaining the property which he coveted. But on reference to the evidence in this case he did not think it was so very clear, and the girl herself had made some very contradictory statements. In one part of her evidence she said she actually did not know when she was married to Meehan. Now, certainly we might not know when we were christened, nor could we know when we were born; but he could not believe that any one could be ignorant when he was married; more especially a girl, the daughter of a publican and living in Sydney. Besides, no great evil had been suffered after all. It was probable this Meehan would go to California; most likely he would be lynched there (oh! oh); at all events, she would not hear of him again, and after seven years she would be at liberty to contract another marriage. (No!) There was no such thing for her as to obtain a divorce which would enable her to marry again, and although it was a hard case, he did not see what good this measure would do. He hoped the House would not stamp this the first day on which they were to consider a New Constitution as the one on which they had introduced a measure to facilitate divorce.

Mr. MARTIN: The hon. member who had just sat down had evidently not taken the trouble to acquaint himself with the subject. Had he looked at the opinion of their honors the Judges, he would have seen that they declared that in point of law this marriage was no marriage at all; and the only object of this Bill was, by declaring the marriage void, to relieve this young girl from any apprehension of being prosecuted for bigamy should she think proper to contract a marriage at some future period. (Hear, hear.) It was not a divorce bill at all. (Hear.) The judges had no difference of opinion as to the power of the House to void the marriage. One of them seemed to think that no marriage could be valid without the intervention of a priest or person in holy orders, and this was, no doubt, the law of England. In this case, however, their certainly was no legal marriage; but if the House did not pass this Act, this girl would be under the apprehension of a prosecution for bigamy. He quite agreed with the hon. member that they should be cautious in passing any divorce bill; but he entirely denied that such bills were not passed now in England. On the contrary, in certain cases they were passed as a matter of right, although, for moral and political reasons, great caution was exercised not to pass them on light grounds. This was merely a declaratory law; but even if it were a divorce bill, he should have supported it under the circumstances. The Legislature was bound, he contended, to interfere for the protection of the defenceless against the perpetration of fraud; and he hoped the hon. gentleman would not press his opposition, or, if he did, that he would be found alone to oppose this bill.

Mr. DARVALL said he had been concerned as counsel in the case, and he should therefore forbear from making any allusion to the facts. But the question was whether the alleged marriage should be declared void, or whether it would not better to ascertain first whether the marriage was valid or not. He did not think an appeal to the Legislature should be made until all other measures had failed. This was called a declaratory measure; but what did it declare? Not the state of the law, which it would leave as uncertain as ever. One of the judges deemed it to be a marriage, the other two did not. Now he knew of no precedent to declare an alleged marriage void. If the marriage was invalid, the Bill was unnecessary; if it was good, the Bill was a divorce bill, and not a declaratory measure at all. Now, as the majority of the judges had declared that it was no marriage, no legislative interference, he apprehended, was necessary. He was strongly of opinion that the vinculum matrimonii should last for life, where it had been contracted by parties of full age; but, in this case, the girl, although forward,—very forward,—was evidently a victim of fraud, and if the marriage was really valid, the knot ought to be untied.

After a few words from Mr. W. BOWMAN,

The SOLICITOR-GENERAL said he should support the second reading of this Bill, on a common sense view of the matter. It was perfectly monstrous that where the tribunal of the land had found that the grossest fraud had been exercised, the law should be impotent to redress the injury, or that the House should not dare to do so.—(Hear, hear.) After all, this case amounted to a stealing of this young girl from her father, and the universal law was that in cases of stealing, restitution should, if possible be made. He could not understand why, because a saintly personage, in a white neckcloth, had pronounced his blessing on these parties, that therefore the law should be impotent to redress the injury. Common sense and common justice imperatively required that this marriage, or alleged marriage, should be set aside.—(Cheers.) The Judges had given their opinion that the House had full power to dissolve the marriage, although they differed as to its validity. He wished to reply to one observation of the hon. member (Mr. Marsh) who had said that no great harm was done, because if the girl did not hear of Meehan for seven years, she would be at liberty to marry again; he believed this was the popular notion, but it was a very erroneous one; the law was, that if a woman heard nothing of her husband, or the husband of his wife, for seven years, he or she would be exempt from prosecution for bigamy, (hear, hear,) but so long as the party lived, any second marriage would be absolutely null and void, and the children of such marriage would be bastards. In this case there was evidence to show that the marriage had not been consummated; but this was of no importance in the question.

Mr. NICHOLS said there was no remedy left to this young girl but to apply to the Legislature. With reference to what the honorable member for New England had said, as to the decrease of divorce cases, the honorable gentleman was entirely misinformed. Since the case of Miss Turner, in 1827, there had been twenty-two divorce cases up to 1842, and several more since that time. Miss Turner's was not the only case in which Parliament had been called on to interfere; and on many occasions marriages had been cancelled which had been procured by fraud and perjury. (Hear, hear.) In the case of the Wakefields there was nothing equal in infamy to this case, there was no comparison. (Hear, hear.) Meehan, however, had abstained from consummating the marriage, evidently under the fear of being prosecuted for a much more serious offence. As to their being no precedents, he said the House ought to make a precedent, and with reference to the royal instructions on divorce bills, he was at a loss to know upon what ground the Royal instructions should override the Act of Parliament, under which this House exercised its power; and if the House allowed any instructions to interfere with its authority it would be quite unworthy to meet again for a single hour.

Mr. WENTWORTH in reply said, in reference to the observations of the honorable and learned member for Cumberland, there were no ecclesiastical courts in this colony in which the validity or otherwise of the marriage could be tried, and therefore there was no remedy but to appeal to the legislature. With regard to the Royal instructions, there were no such instructions applying to other colonies, and he was at a loss to imagine why they had been imposed here. The opinion of the two Judges was that the marriage was void; but he would call the attention of the House to that principle of law by which fraud was declared to vitiate any contract; and this principle ought to apply as well in this case, which was founded upon the grossest frauds, frauds which could not be exceeded (hear, hear); and the idea of upholding such a marriage was absurd, and the Legislature was bound to interpose its authority to dissolve it. At the conclusion of the Bill there was a clause reserving it for the royal assent, but this clause might well be struck out, and he must say that if they were to have responsible Government, the Royal instructions referring to Bills of this nature ought at once to be withdrawn, and he thought an address ought to be adopted to the Queen, praying that they be cancelled at once. In Canada divorce bills were frequently passed, and he was confident that no Royal instructions interfered with their operation.

The Bill was read a second time.

The House then went into committee on the Bill.

All the clauses postponing the operation of the Act until her Majesty's pleasure be known were withdrawn from consideration. The remaining clauses were passed.

The CHAIRMAN then reported the Bill as amended, and the adoption of the report was fixed to stand an order of the day for Friday next.

VACCINATION BILL.

Dr. DOUGLASS moved for leave to bring in a Bill to extend and make compulsory the practice of Vaccination throughout the colony. The Bill which he asked for leave to bring in, in pursuance of the notice he had given, was nearly a copy of a measure brought into the House of Lords by Lord Lyttelton, for the same purpose. The details of the Bill introduced into the House of Lords did not all apply to the circumstances of this colony, but the principle of the measure was the same, and the alterations in its application were only such as the peculiar position of this colony required. The main principle of Lord Lyttelton's Bill rested on the system of the registration of the births of children. Now, in the Act shortly to be introduced by the honorable and learned Attorney-General, the Marriage Act, he believed that provision would be made to compel the registration of births. This system of registry of births, marriages, and deaths, was now in force in England, where the birth of each child was required to be registered by law. By law every child whose birth was thus registered was by law obliged to be vaccinated on the payment of a certain fee. And although they could not make this vaccination compulsory, in the same way as at home, he thought they should endeavour to do it as far as they could. The Bill he proposed to introduce provided that every child registered should be vaccinated within seven months of its birth under a penalty of £2. If when the child were a month old it was declared by the surgeon to be too weak or too ill to sustain the operation, then the certificate of the surgeon to that effect should be an excuse, and if at the end of three months longer the physical health of the child should not warrant the operation, then another certificate should be given. He merely asked for leave to bring in this Bill, not with the intention of ever bringing it up, because until the Marriage Act was passed it was impossible to make it operative. He wished however to engraft this Act in the Marriage Act, and when it became legally incumbent on all parents to register the births of their children, then this power of compelling to vaccinate infants might be put in force. He should not enter further into the details of Bill, which might perhaps be capable of alteration; he simply, on the present occasion, asked leave to bring in the Bill.

Mr. FLOOD seconded the motion.

Leave granted.

PASTORAL LEASES.

Mr. BLIGH postponed his motion, that an address be presented to the Governor-General, praying that his Excellency will be pleased to cause to be laid upon the table of this House a Return of all Runs in the Middle and Unsettled Districts, of which Leases have been granted.

SALES OF CROWN LANDS.

Mr. RICHARDSON moved for Returns of Application to the Surveyor-General for lands, and of Sales of such lands, from the 1st of January, 1850, to the 30th June, 1853. His object in moving for these returns was to remedy a great inconvenience which had been experienced in the district he represented, and he believed in most other districts of the colony. The inconvenience he alluded to arose from the delay which took place in the putting up of land for sale after due application had been made to the Government. In many instances application had been made, and from nine to twelve months had elapsed before the lands had been offered for public sale. Complaints on this score in his district were general, and he believed they were just, for it certainly did appear either that the Survey department of the colony was very badly managed, or that it was entirely inefficient for the purposes for which it was established. In other districts he believed that constantly a delay of four or six months took place between the application for and sale of lands, to the great detriment of intending purchasers; and he believed, if this dilatoriness were continued, a great decrease in the sale of Crown Lands would take place. He believed the fault to be in the Surveyor-General's office, and he did think if the Surveyor-General had evinced half the affection for the interest and the duties of his office, as he had for his Boomarang propeller invention, he should not have to complain of the laxity which he now mentioned. No doubt the invention which the Surveyor-General had gone home to promulgate was very scientific, and would be appreciated as such, but he thought it too bad that the public interest of this colony should be sacrificed even to scientific inventions. He sincerely hoped the invention might turn out useful and successful, but if not, though he as a man should sympathise with the disappointment of the inventor, he hoped he would return as quickly as possible to fulfil those duties to the public which were now so urgently required at his hands. He now begged to move for the returns.

Mr. RUSSELL seconded the motion.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY deemed it his duty to say a few words on this subject, although he had not the slightest desire to withhold the information which the hon. member asked for. He, however, thought that the information which was required could be furnished more easily in a somewhat different shape. If the returns now asked for were to be furnished, they would take a very considerable time to prepare, and at all events could hardly be laid upon the table of the House this session. He thought, however, the intention of the honorable member would be fully met by a continuation of the return moved for by his honorable friend the member for Camden last session relative to this subject. That return was accompanied by a return from Sir Thomas Mitchell explaining the reasons why it frequently happened that considerable delay took place in putting up these lands. It required a very large staff of officers to survey the lands which were thus applied for, and it not unfrequently happened that a surveyor sent to a distant locality to survey land applied for, had no sooner returned to head quarters than he was again called on to return to the same district. The Government was fully alive to the necessity of selling the land as quickly as the demand required, and for this end they had employed a considerable number of licensed surveyors, who added to the strength of the survey department in this respect without being attached to it. These persons only received fees for work actually done: it did not therefore increase the expenditure of the departments, while much more land would be measured. He was glad to say that, in many localities, land offices had been opened, where charts of the different portions of land exposed for sale could be seen. The lands which would otherwise have been appropriated by any speculative individual were now thrown open to a healthy competition. The system of land offices was now in very general operation; but there were some districts where there could be no persons found willing to undertake the office of Land Commissioner, but it happened, of course, that this obstacle generally occurred in districts where there was but little desirable land to be sold; and he would beg to add one word in reply to the remarks which had fallen from the hon. mover relative to the absence from the colony of the Surveyor-General. He would say that the leave of absence granted by the Government was pressed upon it by that House, which had further signified its approval of that absence by asking that the full salary of the Surveyor-General should be paid during his absence. No doubt the House was so strongly impressed with the value of the invention which he went home to explain, that they thought this course was necessary, but it ought not now to be brought up as a matter of reproach to the Government. He should therefore move as an amendment on the original motion: "That an address be presented to the Governor General, praying that his Excellency may be pleased to cause to to be laid upon the table of the House, a Return from the 1st July 1851, to the 30th June, 1853, of all applications for the measurement of the Crown lands, with a view to purchase, which have not been complied with, in continuation of the Return laid before the Council on the 16th December, 1851."

Mr. BLYTH consented to the alteration of the amendment. Carried.

AUSTRALASIAN STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY.

Mr. NICHOLS wished to ask the honorable Colonial Secretary whether the Government had given the Australasian Steam Navigation Company the right to erect a wharf at the northern extremity of the island of Pyrmont island.

The COLONIAL SECRETARY replied that application had been made by the Company to erect the wharf in question. In all applications of this character, plans of the works were required by the Government, and in this case the rule had not been departed from. In this case the plan had been submitted both to the Survey Office and to the Portmaster, and it was for them to judge whether the proposed wharf would abut on any private lands, or in any way interfere with the navigation of the harbour. In addition to these precautions, it was always the habit of the Government to advertise to the public the intention to give up such lands for any such purpose, and inviting objections to such grants if any could be made.

SYDNEY CORPORATION.

Mr. THURLOW begged to ask the Colonial Secretary whether the Government intended to do any thing in the matter of the Sydney Corporation during the present session, and what?

The COLONIAL SECRETARY replied that it was the intention of the Government to do something, but he could not say what. The Bills for the drainage and sewerage and laying on of water to the city was in the hands of the Solicitor-General, and when these bills were brought up the Government would be in a better position to state its intentions as regarded the municipal government of the city.

CONSTITUTIONAL BILLS.

Mr. WENTWORTH: The address which the House had sent to His Excellency the Governor, asking for his sanction, on the part of Her Majesty, to the civil list proposed in the new Constitutional Bills, having been responded to in the affirmative, he was now in a position to move for leave to bring in a Bill to confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty. He was in hopes to have furthered the intention of the hon. member for Durham, who had moved the call of the House that evening, and that they might have advanced a stage onward on this Bill on the present occasion. This, however, was not the case, and he did not suppose that members of the House had had sufficient time carefully to consider this Bill, to examine its voluminous details, to enter upon its discussion on the present occasion. He must confess that he himself was not thoroughly prepared for that discussion, though the father of the Bill, and supposed to be its unqualified supporter. He thought the discussion on this measure ought to be deferred for another week. This was the general course with Bills of great importance, the discussion being taken on the second reading, and in a matter of this great seriousness, he did not think this course should be departed from. In asking leave, therefore, to bring in this Bill he anticipated no opposition. The Bill emanated from a Select Committee, carefully appointed by that House, and he could say had been prepared with great care and deliberation. He believed it to be a measure deserving the attentive consideration of the House. In asking the assent of the House to this motion, however, he wished not to compromise the opinions of any one. Even he would not pledge himself to all the principles or details of the measure; and he felt as fully at liberty to oppose any particular portion of it as any member in the House. There ought to be time afforded for the thoughtful discussion of this measure, and that discussion would properly take place at its second reading, and he proposed then to read this Bill a second time on Tuesday next, although, if necessary, and any expression of opinion should be made by hon. members, he had no objection to postpone it to even a later day. Still he thought they ought as soon as possible to proceed with this Bill. There were hon. members assembled to night whose avocations and interests would speedily demand their attendance at their own stations in the country, and it would not be fair to them unnecessarily to prolong the decision of the House on this measure. As then the main matter of discussion would be the principle of the Bill; as in detail he believed there would be but little diversity of opinion; as the Bill had been circulated out of doors, and had been well discussed by the press, he did not think that he could be charged with unfairness in fixing the second reading for Tuesday next, and he now moved for leave to bring in the Bill.

Mr. COWPER suggested that Tuesday next was too soon, and that the second reading had better, if imperatively fixed, be appointed for Tuesday week.

Mr. WENTWORTH, seeing no disposition in the House to adopt the course proposed by the honorable member for Durham, should adhere to his original plan; and certainly nothing but deference to the express wish of the House would deter him from going into the discussion on Tuesday next.

Leave was granted, and the Bill brought up a first time, and ordered to be read a second time on Tuesday next.

PROHIBITION AND AMENDMENT ACT.

Mr. NICHOLS obtained leave to bring in a Bill to amend the Act 11th Victoria, No. 43, commonly called the Prohibition and Amendment Act.

The Bill was read a first time, and ordered to be read a second time on Tuesday next.

BATHURST COPPER MINING COMPANY.

Mr. BLIGH moved the second reading of the Bathurst Copper Mining Bill.

The Bill was read a second time, and the House went into committee upon it.

On the clause being proposed limiting the amount of a shareholder's liability to the amount of his subscription, instead of double that amount, as in ordinary Joint Stock Companies, considerable discussion took place. Mr. BLIGH, the SOLICITOR GENERAL, and Dr. DOUGLASS defended the principle of the clause, contending that a mining company was different from a trading company, and had no opportunity to contract extensive debts. The clause was opposed by the ATTORNEY-GENERAL, Mr DARVALL, and the COLONIAL SECRETARY, and finally negatived by a majority of 28 to 7.

On the motion of Mr. BLIGH, the House then resumed, and the Chairman obtained leave to sit again on Friday next.

Mr. BLIGH then moved, pursuant to notice, that the 50th and 51st Standing Orders be suspended, with a view to the presentation of a petition from the Ophir Copper Mining Company, praying leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate the said company.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL said that he did not rise to oppose the motion; but he desired to call the attention of the House to the fact that its Standing Orders were a mere farce, seeing that any Company, suddenly originated here, could successfully move the suspension of these Orders, and no check against these irregularities prevailed.

Mr. NICHOLS supported the motion, observing that he thought that every facility should be given to the speedy establishment of companies having for their objects mining, agricultural, pastoral, banking, commercial, railway, and other great and comprehensive operations, which must assuredly tend to open out and develope the resources of this young colony. (Cheers.) He (Mr. Nichols) was of opinion that the Standing Orders of the House had better be suspended altogether than that the progress of wealthy and highly respectable companies should be impeded by official technicalities.

The motion was agreed to, and the petition was received.

CRIMINALS' EXECUTION BILL.

Upon the motion of Dr. DOUGLASS, that this Bill be considered in committee, Mr. CAMPBELL moved that the Chairman leave the chair, and report progress this day six months. Dr. DOUGLASS contended that the principle of the bill having been affirmed, after two divisions of the House, it was not gracious to attempt to postpone, by a side wind, so important a measure. The hon. member had cast the first stone at the bill, and had published his assent, to a certain extent, to the Jewish code, whereby criminals were allowed to be stoned to death by the people. He (Dr. D.) however, trusted that the committee would not agree to the proposed shelving of the bill.

The motion of Mr. Campbell was put and negatived; and, the Bill having been reported with amendments, the adoption of the report was ordered to stand an order of the day for to-day.

SYDNEY UNIVERSITY BILL.

In the absence of Mr. Wentworth, the consideration in committee of this Bill was postponed, on the motion of Mr. HOLROYD, until Friday.

FRIENDLY SOCIETIES BILL.

Mr. NICHOLS moved the second reading of this Bill, briefly adverting to the fact that it had been framed with careful reference to the latest English laws.

The ATTORNEY-GENERAL expressed some doubts as to the good working of this measure, and said that he should wish to have it stand over until next session.

Mr. NICHOLS said that he was averse to so long a postponement of a very important question, but that he would willingly have it referred to the consideration of a Select Committee. After some desultory conversation, the motion for the second reading of the Bill was agreed to, and the committal of the Bill was ordered for Tuesday, August 23.

SYDNEY GOLD ESCORT COMPANY'S BILL.

On the motion of Mr. COWPER, the House went into committee on this Bill. The several clauses were considered and agreed to; the Bill was reported without amendments, the report was thereupon adopted, and the third reading ordered for Thursday next.

AUSTRALIAN JOINT-STOCK BANK BILL.

Upon the motion of Mr. COWPER, the House went into Committee for the further consideration of this Bill.

The COLONIAL-SECRETARY drew the attention of the Committee to the 16th clause of the Bill, which proposed that all shares or other securities bearing a fixed rate of interest guaranteed by the Government of any of the Australasian Colonies, either permanently, or until repayment of an ascertained principal sum, shall be deemed and taken to be public securities within the meaning of the proposed measure. He said that, looking at the provision of the 6th clause of the Bill, which proposed that the total amount of the promissory notes payable on demand, issued and in circulation within the colony of New South Wales, shall not at any one time exceed the amount of the coin, bullion, and public securities which shall for the time being be held by the said corporation within the said colony, he (the Colonial Secretary) could not reconcile the two provisions of the bill. He should, therefore, move that the following words in the 16th clause be expunged, viz., "All shares or other securities bearing a fixed rate of interest guaranteed by such Government either permanently, or until repayment of an ascertained principal sum."

Mr. COWPER said that he should not oppose the expunging of this passage: and the clause, as amended, having been agreed to; the remaining clauses were passed, and the House having resumed, and the Bill reported, the adoption of the Report was ordered to stand an order of the day for to-day.

MAITLAND ROAD BILL.

On the motion of Mr. NICHOLS, the House went into Committee for the further consideration of this Bill. The remaining clauses having been agreed to, the House resumed, the Bill was reported, and the adoption of the Report was ordered to stand an order of the day for to-day.

CALL OF THE HOUSE.

The final call of the House having been made, and Messrs. Edward Cox, G. P. Leslie, and R. Joseph Smith, not being in their places, the COLONIAL SECRETARY moved that the said hon. members be ordered by the Speaker to attend on Tuesday next, for the service of the House.

The Council adjourned at 8 o'clock.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10.

The SOLICITOR GENERAL to move for leave to bring in a Bill to give greater effect to Powers of Attorney.

Mr. NICHOLS to move, That the fiftieth and fifty-first Standing Orders be suspended, with a view to presenting a Petition for leave to introduce a Bill to incorporate the "Hunter River Railway Company."

TUESDAY, AUGUST 16.

Contingent—Mr. MARTIN to move, on motion made for the second reading of the Bill "To confer a Constitution on New South Wales, and to grant a Civil List to Her Majesty," that the Council do resolve as follows:—That in order to enable the Upper House of Legislature to exercise an efficient check upon the Lower, it is necessary that such Upper House should possess, above all things, that weight and consideration which popular election only can give it; and without which no amount of character, intelligence, or ability, in the individuals composing it, can enable it in times of great political excitement, when its intervention will be most required, to exercise in any sense or to any extent, the functions of a truly conservative institution. 2. That in order to prevent the Upper from being a mere duplicate of the Lower House, it should be elected by larger constituencies with a different franchise; and that as it is desirable that there should be a representation of interest as well as of numbers, such larger constituencies should exclusively of the freeholders of the country. 3. That to give stability to the Upper House and make a seat in it an object of ambition to those most competent to guide the public Councils, its members should continue in office for twice the period allotted to the members of the Lower House. 4. That the foregoing Resolutions be referred to the Committee of the whole House for its guidance when taking the before-mentioned Bill into consideration.

WILFUL MURDER.—An inquest was held on the 20th ultimo, at Mr. H. Hart's, Royal Hotel, on view of the body of a man named William Lloyd, then lying dead at the Yass Hospital. Constables Hassett and Costello having been sworn, deposed, that about ten o'clock on the previous Monday night, while they proceeded up Coomar-street on duty, and when near the Royal Hotel, they saw a man lying on the ground, and another man standing over him, whose name is John Hassit. On asking Hassit how the man came to be lying on the ground, that person said that he had fallen down. Constable Hassett left the two men in charge of Costello, and went to apprise Mr. Hart of the circumstance. During his absence Costello made Hassit his prisoner. On the constable observing this man step backwards to a fence of paling with one hand behind him, he walked forward to see what he was at, when he found a broken paling in the prisoner's hand, which he secured. Deceased was then removed to a bed under a dray where he had been in the habit of sleeping. On the next morning he was found insensible, and removed to the hospital, where he died the same night. Spots of blood were found on the prisoner's clothes. Deceased had received a severe fracture of the skull, such as a paling would inflict. The prisoner evinced much alarm during the investigation. He was committed to take his trial for wilful murder.—Goulburn Herald.

INSPECTOR OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—Notice is hereby given, that the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Police District of Paterson, in Petty Sessions assembled, have appointed Mr. Michael Joseph Harte. Chief Constable, to be Inspector of Weights and Measures for the Police District of Paterson.

VACCINATION.—For the information of the public, and especially for persons recently arrived, we are requested to state that Mr. Rutter, the superintendent of the Vaccine Institution, attends every lawful day between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m., at the Vaccine office, Bent-street. The importance of availing themselves of this institution, at this particular time, cannot be too urgently pressed upon all classes of the community.

MAINTENANCE.—The long pending case of Maria Buck against Thomas Buck, publican, for a separate maintenance, was closed yesterday. Mr. Cory conducted the case for the complainant; Mr. W. Roberts, for the defendant, offered Mrs. Buck a home and maintenance with himself; this was declined, on the ground of ill-treatment, not so much by her husband as by her husband's son by a former wife; and she only asked for 30s. a week, which defendant had previously promised, but now refused to give her. The Bench held that a wife was not compelled to reside with a husband, who either ill-treated her himself, or permitted another to subject her to indignity, and made an order as asked, for the payment of 30s. a week.—John Tighe, also a publican, appeared to answer the complaint of his wife for ill-treatment, and praying for a maintenance. These parties were married so lately as last December. In this case the Bench made an order for the payment of £2 10s. a week for the period of three years, with £3 3s. attorneys costs, and 4s. 6d. costs of Court; and, further, required responsible surety in the sum of £150 for due compliance with the order. Tighe was very violent in his deportment before the Court, and very narrowly escaped imprisonment for contempt.

PARRAMATTA.

PUBLIC MEETING.—On Friday evening last, agreeable to advertisement, a public meeting was held in the Court House, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of taking the sense of the inhabitants upon the subject of extending the provisions of the Slaughtering Act to Parramatta. Mr. Forbes, Police Magistrate, took the chair, by virtue of his office, and, in opening the business of the meeting, stated why he so presided, and then read a letter signed by a number of the inhabitants, amongst whom, in accordance with a clause in the Act, there were upwards of twenty-five electors; and stated that, independent of this circumstance, should a certain number of electors wish it, they might demand a poll. If any one now desired, they were at liberty to address the meeting. Mr. Lyons rose to propose the resolution, as only one was necessary to complete the business of the meeting, viz., that a memorial be presented to his Excellency the Governor-General, praying for the extension of the provisions of the Slaughtering Act to the town of Parramatta." In doing so, Mr. Lyons said that, upon the whole, it was perhaps to his disadvantage to do anything towards removing an evil that annually gave him, as Coroner, so many jobs in the course of the year. Dr. Greenup and all the medical men were of opinion that the slaughter-houses were in a great degree the cause of many diseases; and in fact he (the speaker) could not suppose that there was a person in the town so perfectly regardless of the health of his family and neighbours, as not to approve of the resolution.—Mr. E. H. Stathem, in rising to second the resolution, said that any reflecting person in the community must be aware that every one in the town were suffering more or less from the effects of malaria, arising from the nuisance of the slaughter houses; and even admitting that it did not betray itself now, yet the seeds were in the constitution, and would develope themselves hereafter. Parramatta possesses all the advantages necessary for being one of the healthiest towns in the colony. The river running through the centre gives the greatest facility for drainage, and when once the nuisance complained of was removed, then drainage could be commenced. One advantage from the removal of the slaughter-houses was that the market gardeners would appropriate the filth, and give it to us in the shape of splendid vegetables. The resolution was put and carried unanimously. The meeting, which was respectably attended, broke up, well satisfied with its result.

INQUESTS.—An inquest was held at the Wheelwright's Arms, Liverpool, on Wednesday last, before Mr. C. B Lyons, coroner, on view of the body of Mary Ann Bayles. The first evidence taken was that of John Herbert, a blacksmith, who deposed that he lodged in the house of Hannah Bayles, the mother of deceased; he had been there six months; deceased had been unwell for three weeks, but not ill enough to keep her bed; on Monday evening she was playing with the neighbour's children in the yard; she slept that night with her twin brother; she was very deaf, and had a running in her ear for the last eight months; the twin brother, Thomas Bayles, was ill about a month ago, and both Dr. Russell and Mr. Makin were called in; on Monday night, deceased was very bad, coughing and spitting blood; she died a little before one o'clock on Tuesday, at noon; the mother did not send for a doctor, but put the child into a warm bath, and gave her castor oil; the mother was not at home during the day, as she was out washing, but returned two or three hours before the child died, and finding it bad stayed at home to mind it; witness was the first who found the child dead.—Mrs. Chandler, next door neighbour to Mrs. Bayles, corroborated Herbert's statement regarding the bath, castor oil, and the child's playing with the other children on Monday evening. The Jury returned a verdict of "death from natural causes."—Another inquest was held on Thursday last, at Bank's Town, Liverpool Road, before the coroner, on view of the body of Thomas Cousins, who, from the evidence of Mr. Lodge, a farmer, residing at Menangle, was driving a team of bullocks, belonging to the witness, Mr. Lodge; they were on their way to Sydney market; Mr. Lodge was with a horse and cart, and another team of bullocks was between him and deceased; when about half a mile from the house of Mr. Maulsbury, in the hollow, the teams stopped, and witness saw deceased lying on his face on the road; on coming up to him, he said "I am settled;" there were sixty-three bushels of wheat and some hay on the dray; deceased was quite sober, and was in his (Mr. Lodge's) service; his parents were alive, and resided at Cook's River; his age was seventeen; this happened about four o'clock in the afternoon, and he died at half-past five; more than two and a half tons passed over him.—William Cate deposed he was driving a bullock team in front of that which deceased drove; he was getting on the side of his dray to ride, and fell backwards and the wheel went over him; he was quite sober.—Henry Star deposed that he was driving the team between Mr. Lodge's and Thomas Cousins; witness saw him lying on the road, and stopped the team; the wheel went over his loins; witness went into Liverpool for medical aid, and was told that Dr. Russell was on the road. The jury returned a verdict that the death of Thomas Cousins was caused by a heavily laden dray accidentally passing over his body.

ERRATUM.—In the report of the Parramatta meeting respecting water, where it was stated that "the labourers employed near Toongabbee Creek carried porter for drinking a distance of two miles rather than use the salt water from that place, read water instead of porter.

NEWS FROM THE INTERIOR.

OVENS DIGGINGS.

SPRING CREEK, July 26.—The past week has been signalised by a greater fall of rain than any that we have had since the commencement of winter. It has rained almost incessantly every day, and with such violence as to put a temporary stop to mining operations, both on the flats and in the bed of the creek. Yesterday morning, however, the weather changed, and since then we have had no rain, but dark threatening clouds continue still to hang about the horizon.

As might be expected very little has been done towards testing the new ground on the slope of the hill, opposite the commissioner's. Several shafts have been sunk, and very favourable prospects obtained, but nearly all of them have fallen in from the effects of the late rains. The miners have therefore commenced to sink new shafts, round the mouths of which they have cut deep trenches for turning off the water; and as these trenches are very frequently filled with puddled clay, hardly any inconvenience is felt from the surface drainage. The sinking at this place varies in depth from twelve to forty feet, and the gold obtained is sometimes of a rather coarse or nuggetty description.

On the flat below where the claims have been generally so rich, very little has been done during the past week, owing to a superabundance of water in the tunnels; and, as the effect on the ground has been very serious, it is not likely that much will be done on this flat for some months to come. The ground, as I have stated in a previous communication, has been completely excavated to the extent of several acres, the claims being tunnelled into each other, and there being nothing left to support the ground but large wooden pillars. This being the case, all the water which falls into the deserted shafts in the upper part of the flat drains through the excavated ground into the whole of the claims below. This has always been found to be a serious inconvenience in wet weather, and a very striking instance of it occurred on Saturday last. On the Friday morning it was discovered that the water on the claims on the lower part of the flat had risen nearly to the roof of the tunnels, and although several parties immediately commenced baling, and continued to do so during the whole of the day, yet the difficulty proved insurmountable, and nothing but the tools could be saved. On the Saturday morning the water had risen not only up to the roof of the tunnels, but even some distance up the shafts; and before eleven o'clock the whole of the ground, embracing several rich claims that had only been partly worked, fell in bodily. The block could not have been less than half an acre in extent, with an average thickness of twenty-seven feet. The noise occasioned by the fall was something like the rumbling of distant thunder, or the explosion of an earthquake, which the scene in some respects resembled. Fortunately no lives were lost, it being impossible at the time for any one to work or do anything else underground in consequence of the water. Of course, all the claims on this part of the flat are no longer workable, at all events, until the return of summer, and the owners are therefore either looking about for fresh places to set in, or are busily engaged in washing the piles of stuff which they have allowed to accumulate for weeks past.

On the Red Hill, or as it is familiarly known Roper's Hill, the miners have been more fortunate, in so far as the rain is concerned. With one or two exceptions they have been perfectly free from that drainage which has inundated nearly all other parts of the diggings on this Creek. No doubt this is attributable to the great elevation of the ground, and the closeness of the upper strata. Although most of the claims on this Hill have been worked out, there are still a few parties doing a good stroke. These are principally persons who go into the vacant holes, and hit upon patches on those parts which have been rejected by the original owners of the claims as containing no gold!

The sluices both here and at Reed's Creek have done comparatively nothing since I last wrote, in consequence of the rains. The creek is higher now than I have ever seen it before, but if the weather continues fine it will soon regain its usual level.

From Nine Mile Creek the intelligence this week is rather unfavourable. No new places appear to have been discovered, and the old ground is nearly worked out. Parties are leaving almost every day for the purpose of taking up their old quarters on Spring Creek. There is also a great number of persons constantly arriving from M'Ivor, Bendigo, and Mount Alexander. These people bring with them very unfavourable accounts of the whole of these far-famed diggings. They say that Bendigo is nothing like what it was last winter, that a very large proportion of the population cannot even make wages, that it has long since been worked out, that it has even failed to answer the most moderate expectations that were entertained of it. In fact the return diggers do not hesitate to declare the Ovens diggings to be the richest, and at the same time most extensive, at present in the colony of Victoria.

On Wednesday last, a miner, a native of Germany, dropped dead in his tent whilst making a pot of tea. In a few minutes after an inquest was held on the body, which was immediately buried in the presence of about half a dozen persons, who, according to custom, fired their revolvers over the grave in token of respect.

We have received no intelligence from Sydney since the date of my last report. There are now about five or six Sydney mails overdue, and, as I am informed, that both the Murray and the Murrumbidgee are flooded even to a greater extent than they were last year, there does not seem to be much prospect of any overland mail arriving for some days to come.

The storekeepers here are also experiencing great inconvenience from the non-arrival of their drays, of which I understand there is a very large number on the road. This circumstance, combined with the recent accessions to our population has occasioned an advance in the prices both of provisions and clothing. Tea is now 3s. 6d., sugar 1s. 6d., butter, (very bad) 4s. 6d., honey, 4s. 6d., salt 1s. 6d., cheese 2s., bacon 3s. 6d., potatoes 2s., and onions 1s. 3d. In the department of clothing the dearest article is perhaps miners' boots: high Wellingtons are selling for £5 per pair, and those known as navvies' boots are readily purchased at £2 10s.

The Sydney Escort has not arrived, although considerably overdue. No doubt the same cause has operated with them as with the mails. The Government escort, according to the new arrangement, will start on Thursday next. It is expected to take down a considerable amount of gold.

The price of gold at Spring Creek is £3 15s., and in great demand.

Intelligence has just arrived of the private escort from Bendigo being robbed between Kilmore and Melbourne. I have not been able to gather any particulars beyond the fact that 2500 ounces were abstracted, and five of the escort seriously wounded.

HOLLOWAY'S DEPOT,
78, King-street,
Sydney, July 7, 1853.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.

BY the Anna Mary, now in the harbour, and by other vessels shortly to arrive, the undersigned will be in possession of a most ample stock of the above most popular remedies; and he trusts confidently, from the fresh arrangements made with Professor Holloway, that henceforth the Depôt will be so well supplied as to be ALWAYS able to execute the largest orders.

Under these circumstances the advertiser proposes to renew or to create SUB-AGENCIES in every town and district of New South Wales; and hereby invites communications from parties wishing to participate in the profits derived from the enormous sale of these valuable medicines. "Good wine needs no bush," and Holloway's world-renowned remedies require no puffing. In New South Wales it is now well understood that no "station" or gold diggers' camp is complete in its supplies without an ample stock of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. And no wonder! for the benefits conferred by these medicines are so great as almost to go beyond belief. The following statement, inserted in the Goulburn Herald of the 16th of April, is only a sample of the good effected among the community, not one in a thousand—perhaps even in ten thousand—thinking it worth while to take the trouble to return public thanks.

J. K. HEYDON,
Sole Wholesale Agent for New South Wales and Victoria.

To the Editor of the Goulburn Herald.

Dear Sir,—I wish to apprise you of a most miraculous cure that has just been effected by Holloway's Pills and Ointment on my son, a boy turned 14 years of age, who was attacked on the 5th of January last with a most dreadful pain in the chest, and a high fever. I bled and blistered him myself, but to no effect. I had then to send to Dr. Blake, of Yass, to see him, who prescribed and administered medicine to him, which gave him some temporary relief: but instead of curing the malady, it turned it to a far worse and more dangerous complaint, the dropsy. Dr. Blake pronounced him to be dropsical on the 8th of February last, and that my only resource was to send him to the Yass hospital, as he needed daily attendance both from himself and Dr. Campbell, as he was doubtful whether he would survive or not. Under these circumstances I kept my boy at home, and, being advised, I went to Yass and purchased a supply of Holloway's medicines, and began on Ash Wednesday to administer them.

I acted according to the directions given in the pamphlets that are wrapped around the medicine boxes, with the exception that I gave the pills in larger doses than is there prescribed. In the middle of Lent the boy had swelled to such an extent in his belly and feet that I thought he would actually burst, and that I should be obliged to get him tapped; but I had confidence, and persevered in my humble prayers and medicine, and, wonderful to relate, thanks to God and to Holloway's medicine, he was as well as ever on the 27th March—Easter-day. He was cured in the space of seven weeks.

Now, Sir, I think it would be uncharitable in me, towards Professor Holloway, and also towards my neighbours, not to give these facts publicity. Mr. Hurley, of the Burrowa Steam Mills, Mr. O'Brien, of the Burrowa Inn, and scores of my neighbours, can vouch for the truth of those statements, and if necessary I will go forward before any magistrate and confirm this statement on my solemn oath.

I am, Sir, your obedient humble servant,
JEREMIAH HOUGH,
Teacher of the R. C. School, Burrowa

CHURCH OF ENGLAND COLLEGE.

AT a Meeting of Members of the Church of England, held pursuant to public advertisement, signed by their Lordships the Bishops of New Zealand and Newcastle, in the Infant School Room, Castlereagh-street, Sydney, on Friday, the 29th day of July, 1853,

The Venerable the Archdeacon of Cumberland, and afterwards the Lord Bishop of Newcastle, in the chair:—

Prayers having been offered up by the Archdeacon, and the Chairman having addressed the Meeting in explanation of the objects for which it was convened,

1. It was moved by the LORD BISHOP OF NEWCASTLE, and seconded by His Honor Sir ALFRED STEPHEN, Chief Justice, and carried unanimously:—

That it is of the deepest importance to the welfare of the Church of England in this colony that all its members should act together as one united body; and that, inasmuch as the causes which have heretofore been felt by many Churchmen as insuperable objections to joining in the formation of a college affiliated with the University of Sydney are now happily removed—this meeting thankfully avails itself of the opportunity afforded for the promotion of sound learning and religious education, by the establishment of a Church of England College in connexion with the University.

The Archdeacon then left the chair, which was thereupon taken by the Lord Bishop of Newcastle.

2. It was then moved by the Rev. W. H. WALSH, M.A., and seconded by J. B. DARVALL, Esq., M.L.C., and carried unanimously:—

That the following Prospectus be adopted, namely:—Prospectus of a Church of England College in connexion with the University of Sydney:—

It is proposed to establish, in permanent alliance with the Sydney University, a Church of England College, to be called Trinity College: in which systematic religious instruction, domestic supervision, and moral discipline, with elementary teaching, and efficient assistance in preparing for the University Lectures and Examinations, shall be provided for students of the University whose guardians or parents may desire to secure such advantages for them. And thus, while the acquisition by them of all other useful knowledge will be facilitated, and that union of the Tutorial and Professorial systems be attained, which is so important in academical education, the great object will be kept in view of instilling into their minds a reverence for the doctrines and tenets of our Church; and learning will be consecrated, as it ever should be, to the service and honour of God.

With these views the following plan and arrangements are proposed:

1. That College buildings shall be erected in Sydney or its vicinity: to consist of a Hall, Chapel, and Library, with Residences for a Warden and Vice-Warden, and Rooms for about forty Students.

2. That the government of the College shall be vested in a Council, to consist of the Warden and Six Fellows.

3. That the Bishop of the Diocese shall be Visitor of the College.

4. That the Council shall draw up Rules (with power to amend them from time to time as may be thought expedient,) for the management of the College, and the ordering of all things therein to the furtherance of true religion and learning.

5. That the Warden, who shall be a clergyman in priest's orders, shall be appointed by the six Fellows; and the Vice-Warden be appointed by the Warden; such Vice-Warden, in the Warden's absence, to have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the Warden.

6. That in the first instance the Warden be selected in England by the Professor of Modern History in the University of Cambridge (Sir James Stephen); the Principal of King's College, London (Dr. Jelf); and the Margaret Professor of Divinity in the University of Cambridge (Rev. J. J. Blunt).

7. That there shall be eighteen Fellows belonging to the College, of whom six shall be Clergymen in Priests' orders.

8. That when a Church Constitution shall have been legally established, the Clerical members resident in the College shall be subject to all such regulations as may then be enacted for the government of the Clergy in general.

9. That the first eighteen Fellows shall be elected by the Subscribers; and that all vacancies in their number, by resignation or otherwise, shall be supplied by Graduates of the University continuing on the books of the College. Provided that until there shall be twenty such Graduates at the least, all vacancies among the Fellows shall be supplied by the remaining Fellows, by election, in such manner as they may appoint.

10. That the six Fellows, members of the Council, who shall be called Senior Fellows, shall be elected by the eighteen Fellows from their own body, all vacancies being supplied in like manner.

11. That of such Senior Fellows, three shall be Clergymen in priests' orders, and three Laymen.

12. That the said six Fellows shall every second year (or oftener, if need be) elect a Bursar, who shall have the control and administration of the revenues and disbursements of the College. The Bursar to be always capable of re-election.

13. That the Wardens (subject to any rules made by the Council) shall have the general superintendence and control of the Students, and of the Institution.

14. That arrangements shall be made for the establishment of a School in connection with the College, under such regulations and supervision as the Council shall appoint.

15. That an Act shall be sought from the Legislature for the permanent settlement and continuance of the College, upon the foundation and for the purposes here indicated, by incorporation, or otherwise as may be thought most desirable."

3. It was then moved by CHARLES COWPER, Esq., M.L.C., and seconded by the Rev. W. B. CLARKE, M.A., and carried unanimously:—

That the following Gentlemen form a Committee, with power to add to their number, and with full powers of collecting subscriptions, and of taking such other steps as may be necessary to carry into effect the objects proposed in the prospectus adopted by this meeting, and also with power to elect out of their body one Clerical and one Lay Secretary, and to depute any of such powers to any sub-committee or committees, namely:—All Clergymen of the Church of England in the Colony of New South Wales, and the following Lay members, namely, Sir Alfred Stephen, and Messieurs Thomas Holt, jun., Charles Kemp, James Norton, Robert Johnson, T. S. Mort, John Croft, T. W. Smith, George King, J. F. Josephson, Charles Lowe, W. T. Cape, M. Metcalfe, T. W. Smart, M.L.C., James Barker, Richard Johnson, Captain King, R.N., Charles Cowper, M.L.C., Robert Campbell, M.L.C., John Campbell, James Mitchell, Charles Nathan, R. Coupland Lethbridge, Arthur Jeffries, M.L.C., Edward Knox, George Crawley, H. B. Bradley, J. P. Mackenzie, John Stirling, H. H. Browne, Edmund T. Blackett, and George R. Hirst.

4. It was then moved by the LORD BISHOP OF NEW ZEALAND, and seconded by the Rev. GEORGE KING, B.A., and carried unanimously:—

That, in order to give full effect to the proposed course of Collegiate education, it will be necessary, as early as possible, to establish a Theological College for the reception of candidates for Holy orders: and that with a view to this the petition now read be adopted and generally circulated, to obtain the signature of members of the Church of England, and that it be then presented to his Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Governor-General of the Australian colonies, Vice-Admiral of the same, and Governor in Chief of New South Wales and its dependencies, namely:—

"We, the undersigned Bishops, Clergy, and Laity of the Church of England, most respectfully present the following memorial to your Excellency the Governor-General.

Your petitioners most respectfully represent to your Excellency that the old burial ground adjoining St. Andrew's Cathedral has long continued in a state of desecration alike painful to our feelings and discreditable to the city of Sydney.

Your petitioners therefore humbly request that your Excellency will be pleased to grant the above ground to the Church of England, upon the conditions and for the trusts hereinafter mentioned—

Namely—that the aforesaid ground shall be used as a Cathedral close, to contain dwellings for the Clergy of the Church of England in residence at the Cathedral, a Clerical library, and a Theological college for candidates in immediate preparation for Holy orders, under the eye of the Bishop and residentiary Clergy of the Cathedral. Your petitioners are persuaded that an Institution of this kind will be required, in order to give full effect to the Collegiate system proposed to be established in connexion with the University of Sydney.

Your petitioners will be prepared to take every possible precaution to preserve the graves of the dead from desecration, by enclosing within a Cloister the area not occupied by the proposed buildings; and by arching over with vaults the basement story of the houses, wherever this should be rendered necessary by the position of the graves.

Your petitioners pledge themselves to use their utmost efforts to give effect to this recommendation, by erecting as speedily as possible buildings which may be a lasting ornament to the city of Sydney; and by founding a Theological College, in which graduates of the University or other eligible persons may complete their education for Holy orders."

5. It was then moved and seconded, and carried by acclamation:—

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to their Lordships the Bishops of NEW ZEALAND and NEWCASTLE, for their efforts in effecting an union of all the Members of the Church of England, in furtherance of the proposed College.

The Benediction was then pronounced by the Bishop of New Zealand, and the Meeting terminated.

ALFRED H. STEPHEN, ROBERT JOHNSON, } Secretaries.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND COLLEGE.

AT a Meeting of the Committee appointed at the Public Meeting above mentioned, held at the Vestry of St. James' Church, Sydney, on Tuesday, the 2nd day of August, 1853,

PRESENT:

The Lord Bishop of Newcastle, in the Chair; Sir Alfred Stephen, Revs. Fredk. Wilkinson, Oswald J. Howell, W. H. Walsh, B. Lucas Watson, George King, Thomas Druitt, Alfred H. Stephen, C. F. D. Priddle, John Davis Mereweather, Geo. F. Macarthur, John Milner; Messrs. Edmund T. Blackett, J. P. Mackenzie, John Campbell, Charles Lowe, Robert Johnson, T. W. Smith, John Croft, T. S. Mort, James Barker, Thomas Holt, jun., H. H. Browne, Richard Johnson, George Hirst, J. F. Josephson, T. W. Smart, Charles Kemp, W. T. Cape, Michael Metcalfe, Charles Nathan, and George King.

The Chairman shortly addressed the meeting explaining the circumstances which led to the appointment of this Committee and the objects for which it was appointed, and suggested that the principal subjects then for consideration, were the appointment of an acting or sub-committee, and the election of a chairman and secretaries; and his Lordship concluded by requesting members to mention any other matters which they might consider requisite to bring forward.

Sir ALFRED STEPHEN stated that, as Chairman of Queen's College Committee, he had been deputed to mention to this Committee, that many of the members of the former Committee were very desirous that the College should retain the name of "Queen's College," as proposed by their Committee, before the negociation which led to the meeting at which this Committee was appointed, and his Honor addressed the Committee in explanation of the views of the members of Queen's College Committee on the subject, and also informed this Committee that Queen's College Committee had passed a resolution for the convening of a meeting of the subscribers to "Queen's College" fund, with a view of obtaining a transfer of the subscriptions thereto, to the subscription list in aid of the College proposed to be established by this Committee.

The Rev. MR. WATSON urged that this Committee ought not to retain the name of "Queen's College" as the name of the proposed College, on the ground that by so doing those members who had, from conscientious motives, declined to join Queen's College Committee, would be liable to be charged with inconsistency in having joined a body which they had before stated they could not conscientiously co-operate with.

After further discussion on this matter,

It was moved by Mr. MORT, and seconded by Mr. CAPE,

That it is the opinion of the members of this committee that "Queen's College" ought to be retained as the name of the proposed College.

After considerable discussion thereon, Sir ALFRED STEPHEN stated that if Mr. Mort's motion were withdrawn, he would propose a motion which he thought would meet the views of all parties; and Mr. Mort's motion having thereupon, by leave of the committee, been withdrawn,

It was moved by Sir ALFRED STEPHEN, and seconded by the Rev. Mr. DRUITT,—

That, inasmuch as the Incorporation of the intended Church of England College, by the Legislative Council, will be an incorporation at the instance of its subscribers, lists be forthwith commenced and circulated, of persons subscribing to the Church of England College in connexion with the Sydney University: and that the name of such College be determined by the general body of such Subscribers, at a meeting to be called on the first Thursday in November next.

Before putting this motion, the CHAIRMAN requested those members of this Committee who were also members of "Queen's College" Committee, to state whether the proposed motion would meet their views, and enable them cordially to assist as members of this Committee in the establishment of the proposed College; and such members having unanimously stated that the resolution met their views, and would enable them so to assist as members of this Committee, His Lordship then requested the other members to express their views on the subject, who thereupon made a similar statement as that made by the first-mentioned members.

The motion was then put and carried unanimously.

Moved by the Rev. Mr. WATSON, seconded by the Rev. Mr. WALSH—

That the Rev. Alfred H. Stephen, B.A., be appointed the Clerical, and Mr. Robert Johnson the Lay Secretary of this Committee; and that they be also appointed Treasurers of the funds subscribed in aid of the establishment of the proposed College.

Carried.

Moved by Mr. MORT, and seconded by Mr. SMART—

That His Honor Sir Alfred Stephen be Chairman of this Committee.

Carried.

Moved by Mr. KEMP, and seconded by the Rev. Mr. PRIDDLE—

That the meetings of this Committee be held on the first Tuesday in every month, at four o'clock p.m.: and that the same be held (with the consent of the parochial authorities,) in the Vestry of Saint James' Church, Sydney.

Carried.

It was then moved by Mr. METCALF, and seconded by the Rev. Mr. DRUITT—

That the Chairman, with the Rev. Messrs. Walsh and Watson and the Secretaries, be appointed a Sub-Committee to conduct the correspondence of this Committee.

Upon this the following amendment was moved by Mr. KEMP, and seconded by the Rev. GEORGE KING—

That a sub-committee, consisting of four members, with the chairman and secretaries, be appointed by this committee as an acting committee.

This amendment was negatived, and the original motion was carried.

Moved by Mr. METCALF, and seconded by Mr. KEMP—

That the following members of this committee, namely, Messrs. James Barker, H. H. Brown, T. W. Smart, and T. W. Smith, be appointed a sub-committee to manage the finances of this committee, and to collect subscriptions in aid of the proposed College.

Carried.

Moved by Sir ALFRED STEPHEN, and seconded by the Rev. Mr. PRIDDLE—

That the Chairman and also the Secretaries shall have power to convene this Committee whenever they shall deem it expedient to do so; and that the Secretaries shall be bound to do so whenever so required in writing by any three or more members.

Carried.

Adjourned.

ALFRED H. STEPHEN, ROBERT JOHNSON, } Secretaries.

ANDREW GRIBBEN AND SONS beg to return their sincere thanks to the gentlemen of Sydney and the public generally for the liberal share of patronage they have received during the last year, and trust by punctuality, care, and attention, to merit a continuance of the same.

Andrew Gribben, sen., cannot let this opportunity pass of making a few remarks on an advertisement in which carelessness, neglect, and want of skill is broadly attributed to the Sydney farrier; and he defies any one to show that during the thirteen years he has worked in Sydney that he, or any of his establishment, has rendered any horse entirely useless from neglect or want of skill; and begs to state that the Elizabeth-street Forge is second to none in the colony for the ability, skill, and care of those employed in the shoeing department. And although he (A. G.) does not hold a diploma from any veterinary college, yet he is led to believe, from the number of sick horses committed to his care, that the public consider his 30 years' practical experience at least equal to the theoretical knowledge of any diploma licentiate. 4863

WRIGHT AND HYATT'S ELLIPTIC ROTATORY ENGINE.
THE attention of Engineers, Railway Directors, Steamboat Proprietors, and others who are interested in the more extended adoption of steam power, is requested to the Elliptic Rotatory Engine and Steam Boiler, acknowledged by all who have seen them to be the greatest improvements of the age. The Engine cannot be better described than by the underneath descriptive extract, from the "Practical Mechanics' Journal," for December, 1852.
"The Elliptic Rotatory Engine is one of the most successful examples of the modern attempts to apply steam power directly to a revolving crank lever, so as to economise steam, lessen the weight, simplify the constructive details, and convey the power directly to its work. Such an engine is indeed practically equivalent to the causing the steam to lay hold of and actuate the crank or revolving shaft, just as the hand turns round a winch, without the intervention of joints, levers, and connecting rods.
Information will be given, and orders received for the above on application to

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 1853.

SALES BY AUCTION.

AUCTION! AUCTION!

To Horsebreeders, Stockholders, Land and House Proprietors, &c.

MR. G. SMITH (son of the late Mr. Charles Smith) begs to inform his friends and the public at large that he has commenced business as an auctioneer; and he trusts that the knowledge of stock which he has gained from long experience and constant attention, and the interest he can command with purchasers, will merit a due share of patronage.

Sales attended in any part of the country at the shortest notice; or at the stockyards in town, as may be most convenient.

Mr. G. S. would impress upon parties who may intend a sale of either alive or dead stock, that his large and influential connection all over Sydney and neighbouring districts must ensure them a favourable chance of realising the highest market prices.

Punctual attendance—Reasonable commission—Immediate returns!

Address—Mr. G. SMITH, William-street, Woolloomooloo. 5413

MR. ARNOLD has received instructions from Mr. Henry Tebbutt to sell by auction, at the Red Rover Inn, Devil's Hole Creek, district of Meroo, on WEDNESDAY, 31st August next, in consequence of his having entered into mercantile business at Port Phillip, without reserve, and in lots to suit purchasers,

The whole of that valuable and very lucrative property known as

THE RED ROVER INN AND STORES,

With license, furniture, and fixtures, and now in full business.

Together with a large and well selected stock of very choice

Spirits—brandy, rum, whiskey, &c., about 10 hogsheads
Draught ale and porter, 3 hogsheads
100 dozen bottled ale and porter
30 dozen wine in bottle—port, sherry, and champagne
Cordials, imported and colonial

The store stock consists of Groceries, including choice teas and sugars

Oilmen's stores
Ironmongery, miners' tools from Gravely's
Cutlery
Drapery and slops
Boots and shoes
&c. &c. &c.

As it is the absolute determination of the proprietor to clear out at this sale, the Auctioneer would call the special attention of publicans and storekeepers in the neighbourhood, and at Tambaroora, Louisa, &c., to the very unusual chance now afforded them of obviating the tedious delays which, from the present bad state of the roads, now necessarily occur in procuring supplies from Sydney; and every facility will be afforded purchasers, by storing their goods for a reasonable time, till drays are ready to remove them.

To an active person, desirous of embarking a few hundred pounds in a very lucrative business, the sale of offers such a chance as seldom occurs of realising a fortune from a trifling outlay. The receipts of the house since its opening can be seen by any one desirous of purchasing, and will be found to have ranged from £60 to £120 per week, and the business was never more flourishing than at present.

The house is well built of sawn timber, and contains every requisite accommodation. It is prettily situated in the very centre of the Devil's Hole Creek diggings, and is surrounded by auriferous flats, which form a verdant landscape, whose advantages will soon be appreciated by the fortunate purchaser.

THE CLIPPER-BUILT BRIG BALTIMORE,

Register Tonnage 169, but carries 250 tons, drawing only 8 feet.

MR. WILLIAM DEAN has received instructions to sell by auction, at the Australian Auction Mart, 427, George-street, THIS DAY, Wednesday, August 10th, at 12 o'clock precisely,

The beautiful fast-sailing clipper brig BALTIMORE.

The Baltimore is a vessel built expressly for bar harbours, and carrying a large cargo with a light draught of water. She has a flush deck, and an immense breadth of beam for a vessel of her tonnage, which by her register is only 169 tons, but she will stow away below hatch 250 tons, and carry 50 tons on deck, drawing only 8 feet 6 inches, but when fairly loaded her draught does not exceed 8 feet.

She has now 69 tons cargo on board, drawing only 6 feet.

Having a flat floor, on such great breadth of beam, she is perfectly safe without ballast, and has gone short voyages with only 20 tons.

AS A LIGHTER,

for the Melbourne Trade, she is unsurpassed by any vessel out of the colony, and, if so employed, would, in a very short time, realise a princely fortune for her owner.

For the Timber Trade and Bar Harbours, she is peculiarly well suited.

As a Passenger Ship her accommodations will bear favourable comparison to any of our colonial traders.

She is exceedingly well found in standing, running rigging, and ground tackle, with spare sails; and is fit for a voyage without one shilling expense. She is coppered, and copper fastened throughout, and is an excellent sea boat, and very fast sailer. Her list of stores is now in the course of preparation, and will include cabin furniture, chronometers, &c., &c., &c.

Intending passengers are particularly requested to go and inspect this beautiful craft, lying off the Circular Wharf; and any information required, previous to day of sale, can be obtained from the owner, Captain Moody, on board; or at the office of

WILLIAM DEAN,
427, George-street.

Terms at sale.

CHIPPENDALE.

Capital property, consisting of HOUSE and LAND, at the corner of Botany-street and Wellington street, close to Mr. Armstrong's Public House, Chippendale.

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION,

BY PURKIS and LAMBERT, at their Rooms, 451, George-street, THIS DAY, Wednesday, 10th August, at 12 o'clock precisely,

The premises occupy a commanding and valuable position in Chippendale, at the corner of Wellington-street and Botany-street. The house is weatherboarded, brick nogged, and plastered within, and contains three rooms, viz., two on the ground floor and one above. It frontage is 18 feet, by about 16 feet depth. The total frontage of the land is 75 feet to Wellington-street, and 40 feet to Botany-street. It is fenced in, and has a gate entrance from Wellington-street. Ample space is left for the erection of further houses if required. The house is at present occupied by Mr. Jones, tailor, at a weekly rental of 12s., but is worth a higher rent, which could be obtained for it readily. It lies between Mr. Dormes' stone houses, in Botany-street, and Mr. Collett's, in Wellington street.

The advantages of possessing snug freehold property like the above, lying close to the city, are too obvious to require eulogy. But if so valuable now, who shall venture to estimate their future price? for immigration by thousands from the mother country continues uninterruptedly, whilst we have vast accessions to the population by daily arrivals from the sister colonies and from distant lands.

The title is unexceptionable.

Terms.—One-half cash deposit, the other on the completion of the conveyance, within 14 days from the time of sale. 4479

THE RILEY ESTATE.

MR. A. POLACK, will sell by auction, on Thursday, the 11th instant, at 11 o'clock, at Russell's Long Room, Pitt street.

FIVE VALUABLE BUILDING ALLOTMENTS,

situate at the corner of Liverpool and Dowling streets, viz.:—

Lot 5 has a frontage of 20 feet to Liverpool-street, by a depth of 60 feet along the eastern side fence of John Rae, Esq., Town Clerk.

Lots 4, 3, 2 have a frontage of 20 feet each to Liverpool-street, by a depth of 50 feet to a reserved land of 10 feet wide.

Lot 1 is a corner allotment, 24 feet 9 inches, to Liverpool-street, 50 feet frontage to Dowling-street, and 24 feet to a reserved lane, 10 feet wide. This allotment is separated from the house of the Rev. Mr. Mackinson, only by the street.

Mr. Polack, in offering this most desirable property for sale, begs to assure the public it is of that description which seldom falls into his hands to dispose of; and when he states that it is contiguous to the premises of John Rae, Francis Mitchell, and Archibald Little, Esqs., and the Rev. Mr. Mackinson, he considers that sufficient at once to recommend it.

The title is indisputable.

A plan of the Allotments at the rooms of the Auctioneer. 5404

THE BOROUGH OF PARRAMATTA.

MR. A. POLACK will sell by auction, at the Long Room, Russell's Hotel, on THURSDAY, the 11th day of August,

Four highly eligible Allotments, situated in the main thoroughfare of the flourishing and rapidly improving borough of Parramatta.

Lots 1, 2, and 3 have frontages of 60 feet each to

THE WINDSOR ROAD,

by a depth of 214 feet, more or less, to the Parramatta River, and exactly opposite Fitzpatrick's public house, near the Broken Back Bridge and Darling Mills.

Lot 4 has a frontage of 104 feet to the Windsor Road, by a depth of about 150 feet to the Parramatta River, the said river making the southern and western boundaries to the bridge.

The prospective results of a speculation in this property are of a most inviting description. As the population of this thriving and unprecedently successful colony increases, must become a city of first rate importance, it being the key to all parts of the southern territory. Taking all this undeniable view of the subject—equally just and uncontrovertible—to what value this property may arrive it is impossible to calculate; but, looking at the immense sums which have been realized by purchasers in rising townships, will certainly give every guarantee that in a few years the same results must attend upon similar operations. The railway between Sydney and Parramatta being expected to be completed within twelve months, it will then be only about fifteen minutes' run from the metropolis.

A plan on view at the rooms of the auctioneer, Hunter-street.

Terms at sale.

A FIRST-RATE CORNER ALLOTMENT ON THE RILEY ESTATE.

MR. A. POLACK will sell by auction on THURSDAY next, the 11th instant, at 11 o'clock,

A Corner Allotment on the Riley Estate, having a frontage of 60 feet to Palmer-street, and 60 feet to Burton-street, and being the south-west corner of BLOCK G. 4.

This is a most excellent corner for a respectable Hotel; it has the right to the gable end of the house lately built by Mr. Maloney, and the quantity of building stone already on the ground is now valued at £120, which will be given in to the purchaser of this allotment.

Terms at sale.

A plan on view at the rooms of the auctioneer. 5405

FIVE DOCK ESTATE.

MR. A. POLACK will sell by auction, on THURSDAY, the 11th day of August, at Russell's Long Room, Pitt-street, at 11 o'clock,

The two original Allotments, 77 and 78 situate at GIPPS TOWN.

Each of these allotments has a frontage of 150 feet to George-street, by a depth of 246 feet, and are bounded by the properties of Messrs. John Kettle, W. Barton, and Edward Salamon. Mr. Polack, in submitting the above to public notice, feels assured that any comment from him relative to the value of this property would be perfectly useless, and the situation (midway between Sydney and Parramatta) is too well known to require any remarks either in pointing out its local beauties, or the various purposes for which these allotments are suitable.

Looking at the cultivated gardens in the neighbourhood, intending purchasers may presume that the soil is of the finest description, consequently admirably adapted for the erection of private country residences, forming gardens, &c., so anxiously looked for when situated within so pleasant a ride or drive of the metropolis.

A plan of the allotments on view at the Rooms of the auctioneer, Hunter-street. 5403

CITY PROPERTY, WITHOUT TAXATION.

MR. A. POLACK will sell by auction, at Russell's Long Room, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, the 11th instant, at 11 o'clock,

An Allotment of Building Land, especially suited to meet the views of capitalists, the industrious artisan and mechanic.

It has a frontage of 112 feet to

RUSHCUTTER'S VIEW-STREET, and a depth of 120 feet just outside the City Boundary, Old South Head Road.

Mr. Polack, in offering the above for sale, remarks that this is a spot admirably adapted for the erection of a for a genteel family, being in a retired, pleasant, and healthy situation, and the neighbourhood highly respectable. It is also deserving the attention of capitalists, builders, and others, for the erection of small houses' adapted for the residences of respectable mechanics and others who require to live in a genteel neighbourhood—a description of building much required at the present time.

A plan on view at the Rooms of the Auctioneer, Hunter-street. 5408

GIPPS' TOWN, PARRAMATTA ROAD

MR. A. POLACK will sell by public auction, at Russell's Long Room, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, the 11th day of August, at 11 o'clock,

Two allotments of ground, situated at Gipps Town, Parramatta Road.

These allotments are considered the core of the Five Dock Estate, centrically situated, and will, ere long, be the life-spring of the whole neighbourhood, especially when the railway is in train.

They are the original allotments Nos. 40 and 41, each having a frontage of 100 feet to Queen-street, by a depth of 250 feet, and are bounded on the north by Queen-street; west by the property of Mr. Templeton; south by the properties of Mr. Salamon and Mr. Home; and east by the property of Mr. Buck, situated at the north-east corner of Mr. Henry Denton's property, and not far from Mowbray Cottage, Ashfield, the residence of Henry Halloran, Esq.

The spirited capitalists of the present day should seize with avidity the opportunity now offered of purchasing this exceedingly rich tillage ground, and the operative and mechanic who are daily becoming substantial proprietors of landed properties should, whilst they have the means, secure to themselves the same rights and interests as are possessed by their more influential neighbours.

THE MOST DELIGHTFUL SPOT AT WAVERLEY

Has been placed in the hands of

MR. A. POLACK to sell by public auction, at the long room, Russell's Hotel, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, the 11th of August, at 11 o'clock.

This portion of land contains about 5 acres, and lies situated near to the residence of Mr. F. O'Brien, or rather between that estate known as Bondi and the valuable estate of Robert Lowe, Esq., formerly M.L.C. for the city of Sydney, but now M.P. for Kidderminster in the British House of Commons, and near the five acres sold by him on the 1st instant which created so much competition. It was near to this spot that some of Captain Phillips' crew first discovered the waters of Port Jackson (previous to their embarking from Botany Bay) having gone into the bush on a shooting excursion—hence the name

BELLE VUE.

This situation is classed in richness of scenery at the highest pinnacle of exclusive superiority. The innumerable mansions, residences, buildings, &c., &c., and the rich surrounding country, mark this spot as an exceedingly eligible place for a Sydney merchant to reside on for the enjoyment of health and pleasure, and where he may observe the numerous vessels laden with the merchandise of all nations pass just close to his door.

Title—a grant from the Crown.

For further particulars apply to the auctioneer, Hunter-street. 5410

SYDNEY PROPERTY.

MR. A. POLACK has received instructions to sell by public auction, at the Long Room, Russell's Hotel, Pitt-street, on THURSDAY, the 11th day of August, at 11 o'clock,

2 Allotments of first rate freehold building ground, situated on the Surry Hills, a few yards on the south side of BLUCK'S HOTEL.

Lot 1, being a corner allotment of 20 feet to Crown-street, by a depth of 90 feet to Ann-street, dividing it from the present residence of Mr. Anderson.

Lot 2 has a frontage of 20 feet to Crown-street by a depth of 90 feet, and situated 40 feet north from the residence of Mr. Pawley.

These allotments are most centrically situated, immediately at the head of Devonshire-street, and close to its junction with High Holborn-street.

The industrious tradesman and mechanic know full well the value of this building site. There is not the least doubt but that this part of Sydney must be a most populous neighbourhood, and Mr. Polack offers these allotments to the notice of those buyers who are in the habit of realising considerable profits in the purchase of Sydney freehold landed properties, as they are very scarce, and are considered quite equal to any offered for public competition.

Terms at sale.

All particulars can be obtained on application to the auctioneer, Hunter-street.

HILL-SIDE HOUSE, BALMAIN
Derwent Cottage, Balmain
Allotments in Balmain
Allotments in Wollongong
Allotments in Yass.
By order of Captain Pearson.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, THIS DAY, Wednesday, the 10th August,

The valuable properties mentioned below.

A choice selection of building allotments and houses, situated in one of the prettiest sites in

BALMAIN.
Lot 1.

Extensive allotments of land, having a frontage of 150 feet to Pearson's Road, and the same to Paul's-street, by a depth of about 148 feet, 3 original allotments. On this block is erected

HILL-SIDE HOUSE, built of cut stone; containing kitchen and servants' room in the basement, 4 rooms on the 1st floor, and 3 rooms in attic. There is an extensive verandah in front and back, and hall running through, with stair-case and cupboard beneath. There is also a garden with fruit trees; a wooden building in yard, consisting of coach house and stables; also never known to fail, which is used in common with lot 2.

Immediately in front of the house is a row of 4 stone-built cottages, with 2 rooms each, and yard behind, let to old tenants at 6s. each per week, but would readily bring 8s. to 10s. per week.

Hill-Side House is let to R. Stenhouse, Esq., upon a lease at £50 per annum, which will expire on the 30th September, 1854. It would now let readily for £150 per annum.

The situation is elevated and healthy, and commands a very pleasing view towards Sydney eastwards, and up Darling Harbour to the south-east.

The House is put up with four cottages in one lot to enable the purchaser, if he chooses, to remove them from their present position, and with the materials to erect a house to the north part of the same block, which will be the means of securing to the property advantages of position and aspect second to none in Balmain.

For information respecting the internal condition and accommodation of Hill-Side House, apply to Mr. John Clarke, Bankside Cottage, Balmain; or to Captain Pearson, Petty's Hotel, Sydney.

Lot 2.
A BLOCK OF LAND,
having 54 feet frontage to Pearson's Road, by a depth of 144 feet, on which is erected a weather-boarded cottage, plastered inside, and erected upon a stone foundation. It contains 4 rooms on ground floor, with kitchen and storeroom attached. Hall through the house, and 2 rooms in the attic, it has a neat verandah in front.

DERWENT COTTAGE
is now let to —— Geard, Esq., on a lease at £50 per annum, which will expire on the 1st July, 1854. It would let readily at £100 per annum.

It is pleasantly situated with a southern aspect, commanding an extensive and fine view, and has the use of a well of water.

LOTS 3 TO 16
are fourteen building allotments, varying in size from about 50 by 50 feet to 50 by 70 feet, with a frontage to a road.

These allotments are principally in choice positions, requiring very little labour, if any, before they are built upon. The situation is elevated, open to the cooling influence of the sea breeze in summer, and consequently healthy, and most of them in command of views which cannot be shut out.

Lot 17
has a frontage of 45 feet 6 inches to Darling Harbour, immediately facing Botts' Wharf, by a depth of 115 feet.

The value of waterside premises, so favourably situated with regard to Sydney, need scarcely be alluded to. With deep water frontage, the erection of a wharf for coaling some of the numerous steamers visiting our shores would be a profitable undertaking; and for a villa residence, this site cannot be surpassed; for, independent of the favourable aspect, the distance from Sydney, scarcely more than a stone's throw, renders it at once part and parcel of the city, although in the country.

LOT 18.
Cottage and Wharf in Darling Harbour, facing Botts' Wharf, and adjoining the front corner allotment No. 1, together with a fee simple of the road in the rear, called Pearson's Road, about 28 feet wide.

When this corner of Balmain is filled up with residences, this wharf will be found a most valuable possession, being the means of communication with so many properties.

ALLOTMENTS IN WOLLONGONG.
4 Allotments in the township of Wollongong.
Lot 1
A corner allotment, with a frontage of about 74 feet to Kemble-street and 33 feet to Market-street.

Lots 2, 3, and 4, each having a frontage of 37 feet to Kemble-street, by a depth of 132 feet.

Wollongong is the Brighton of New South Wales, and as the population increases, vast numbers of the citizens of Sydney will take periodical trips to the country—a capital chance for the speculator.

ALLOTMENTS IN YASS.
13 allotments in O'Connell Town, Yass, bounded by the river about 528 feet. This is Block No. 28 in the original sale, and will be submitted in lots containing about two roods each, more or less.

Business in the township of Yass has more than trebled since the discovery of gold, and a lodging of any description can scarcely be procured. The above allotments form a portion of an extension of the township, and are well situated for building sites.

Mr. Mort begs to draw the attention of capitalists to this important sale of suburban and country properties.

60 ACRES LAND ON THE M'DONALD RIVER,
840 Acres Land in Argyle
33 Acres Land at Illawarra
2000 Acres Argyle, Inverary Park
1130 Acres on the Burrowa River
42 Acres in Argyle
N.B.—The above are for positive sale, under orders from England.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, THIS DAY, Wednesday, 10th August, at 11 o'clock,

The following properties:

Lot 1.
A mortgage for £75, with all interest due thereon from the 30th November, 1837, at the rate of 12½ per cent., which sum, with interest, is secured upon in the county of Cook, at the M'Donald River, or first branch of the Hawkesbury, granted by the Crown to Edward Devine, and by him mortgaged to the present vendor.

60 ACRES OF LAND

The M'Donald is well known as a tributary of the Hawkesbury, emptying itself first above Wiseman's Ferry. The banks of the M'Donald are famous for the small farms, evincing the richness of the soil by the profuse vegetation; and parties contented to settle in a healthy locality to "till the land" and live quietly and comfortably, will do well to attend this sale.

There is water carriage to Sydney.

Lot 2.
840 Acres of Land at Jerricknorra, county St. Vincent, commencing on Jerricnorra Creek, at the north-east corner, and bounded on the north by a line west 104 chains; on the west by a line south 80 chains; on the south by a line east 90 chains to Wog Wog Creek; and on the east by that and Jericknorra Creek to the commencing point, with the improvements thereon.

A fine district for agricultural pursuits, and a first rate farm, with plenty of water and extensive runs adjoining.

The first gold discovered in the county of St. Vincent was on the Little River, which waters this Estate; and the probability of gold being found in the immediate locality, imparts a value to the land which ought to be borne in mind on the day of sale.

Lot 3.
32 Acres 2 roods 31 perches of land (part of John Hubert Plunkett's original grant of 1280 acres) situated at Illawarra, in the county of Camden, being lot 28 in Mill Creek, with improvements thereon.

This is on the main road, and situated at the foot of Mount Keira.

A handy farm for a moderate minded man in the garden of New South Wales! What more could be desired?

Lot 4.
Inverary Park, 2000 acres, in the county of Argyle, bounded on the west by a line north 180 chains, forming part of the boundary of Inch's farm; on the north by a line east 120 chains; east by a line south 180 chains; south by a line west 120 chains to the commencing corner, with all the improvements thereon.

A few years since, and Inverary Park was famous for its broad lands under cultivation—its orchards, its garden, and its beautiful paddocks; but the death of its proprietors, coupled with other circumstances, reduced this estate, like many others, to a condition of disrepair. As "Good Times," however, are now coming it only requires an outlay of a few pounds to render it flourishing; man must do a little and nature will do much.

The first gold discovered in the Argyle district was found on this property, and the proprietor of this Estate has the pre-emptive right of purchasing 5360 acres.

Lot 5.
1130 acres in the county of King, at the head of the Burrowa River; bounded on the north by the Burrowa River; on the east by a section line 130 chains south; on the south by a section line 80 chains west; and on the west by a section line 116 chains north.

Within a short distance from the township of Yass, and well worth the attention of parties on the look out for land for agricultural or pastoral purposes.

Lot 6.
42 acres of land in the county of Argyle, near Windelluma; commencing at Nadjigomar Creek, about 4½ miles from its confluence with Budgong Creek at the north-east corner of a measured portion of 40 acres; bounded on the south by a line west 25 chains; west by a line north 17 chains; north by a line east 26 chains to Najigomar Creek; on the east by that creek to the commencing point, with the improvements thereon.

This land is well adapted for tillage, and in the neighbourhood of extensive runs. Wheat growing in the Southern district has proved most profitable of late.

Lot 7.
200 Acres of Land at Mittagong, county of Camden, commencing at a bridge on the Great South Road, at the south-east corner of 200 acres applied for to purchase by M. W. Lewis, and bounded on the south-east by the Great South Road, excepting 50 acres thereof sold to Captain Papps. Being originally granted to William Roberts.

A fine district for farming purposes, and on the high road to the diggings now at work, and the extensive Gold fields hitherto untouched.

Lot 8.
73 Acres of Land, near Mittagong, commencing on the Great South Road to Berrima, at the south-east corner of George Cutter's land, and bounded on the west by that land and unlocated land, and on the south-east by the Great South Road. Granted to William Roberts.

A good locality for a blacksmith to settle upon, and carry on a little cultivation, and keep an accommodation paddock, in conjunction with his business.

A choice selection, where some good bargains may be picked up.

Mr. Mort begs to direct the attention of capitalists, farmers, and others to this unreserved sale of country property. There can be no mistake about lands increasing in value; as numbers flock in, farms will be enquired after, independent of which, the gold dug out of the land cannot be devoted to a more lucrative purpose than in purchasing the land itself.

And the Premises occupied by

Mr. Mort would beg merely to draw the attention of capitalists to this valuable property in one of the busiest corners of the city. Property like this under daily cognizance needs no comment. Intending purchasers can inspect and judge for themselves; but remember that WEDNESDAY, the 10th August, is the day of sale. 4455

PATENT PRESERVING PROVISION MANUFACTORY, CAMPERDOWN.
Four Acres of Land and valuable Buildings, forming one of the most complete Establishments in New South Wales.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, THIS DAY, Wednesday, 10th August, at 11 o'clock,

The establishment known as the PATENT PRESERVING PROVISION MANUFACTORY, at Camperdown.

The establishment consists of the following:

An extensive cut ashlar stone building, erected for a dwelling house, and now used as a SLAUGHTER-HOUSE, attached to which on one side is a shed, with tripots complete for rendering tallow; also

A STOCKYARD AND PEN;
and on the other side an extensive building containing

EIGHT-STALL STABLE,
LARGE FOWL-HOUSE, and EXTENSIVE PIGGERY,
having yards complete connected to a double dam of wrought stone work, one half of which is open for the pigs and sheep, &c., and the othe half for the horses.

To the fowl-house is attached a
POULTRY YARD,
and the floors of the piggery and stables are pitched with stones, and the whole establishment is compact as well as complete

The MANUFACTORY and ENGINE HOUSE are detached, and with the tinman's workshop and stores form one range of buildings, erected on a stone foundation, and fitted with boilers and pans with steaming apparatus, all in first-rate order. There is a

FORCE PUMP
for filling the boilers from a well of water, never known to fail, independent of which, to guard against the possibility of mishaps, and for the use of the live stock, there is an

EXTENSIVE RESERVOIR
for supplying the dams, and connected therewith by means of a Stone Tunnel carried underground 247 FEET LONG, the water from which is carried through the Slaughter House, being the means of keeping the place perfectly clean and wholesome. In the Slaughter-house is also fixed an APPARATUS FOR MAKING SAUSAGES.

THE PRESERVING AND SMOKING HOUSE, with Oven attached, is in a separate building, and quite complete.

THE DWELLING-HOUSE
is conveniently situated, built of brick, and containing four rooms, with a detached kitchen and men's hut adjoining. Also a NEAT GARDEN.

And immediately in the rear of the house is a fine cultivation paddock, with beautiful soil, fit to grow anything. It is at present under a crop of green barley. The whole is fenced in and in capital order, and stands upon an area of

FOUR ACRES.
The establishment is situated adjoining the garden known as Charley Smith's, between the Church of England Cemetery and the Parramatta Road, and fronting the cross road from Newtown to Camperdown, which frontage is subdivided into having frontages of about 26 feet by a depth of 117 feet, which, with the buildings, will be put up in one lot, or sold separately, as may be decided upon, to meet the wishes of intending purchasers on the day of sale.

Mr. Mort begs to draw the attention of capitalists as well as enterprising individuals to the valuable property now offered for sale only in consequence of the proprietor's projected departure for Europe. The first establishment of the kind formed in New South Wales, and erected with every regard to convenience and accommodation,—it has fully answered the expectation of the spirited proprietors, and with ordinary supervision must be the means of realising a rapid fortune to the fortunate purchaser.

The recent disclosures with reference to the preserved meats for the Royal Navy and service of H. M. Government in England, have directed attention to the supplies from New South Wales, which are universally acknowledged to be of far superior quality to any thing manufactured at home; and the increasing demand for the Indian navy, the British merchant service, foreign ships of war, and other vessels gradually accumulating in the Southern seas, warrant the assertion that money cannot be better expended than in carrying on an establishment like this, which offers a fine scope for the formation of a

with an extended field for a candle and soap factory.

Economy of labour must have been kept in view when the establishment was formed; for its completeness, combined with its compactness, renders it capable of being worked with very few hands,—a most essential point, as events have proved.

The facility of communication with the metropolis—the vicinity to the high road by which all the stock passes in for slaughter—the extensive feeding grounds in the neighbourhood, and the central position of the establishment—are points not to be overlooked; and taken as a whole the advantages offered by this sale can be safely and conscientiously recommended as a remunerative speculation, worthy the attention of any one having capital at his disposal.

Terms at sale.
Plan on view at the Rooms.

Parties desirous of inspecting the premises are invited to do so on and after Monday, the 25th instant; and samples of the various articles manufactured on the establishment, together with every other particular or information, can be obtained from Moses Joseph, Esq., Sydney, or at the Rooms of the auctioneer. 269

THREE HOUSES IN BOTANY-STREET,
Near the Criminal Court House, Darlinghurst.
Day of Sale, FRIDAY, 12th August.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on FRIDAY, the 12th August, at 11 o'clock,

Three Houses situated in Botany-street, and standing on a block of Land having a frontage of about 28 feet by a depth of 80 feet.

These Houses are newly erected of brick on stone foundations, and may be described as follows:—

Two Houses, fronting Botany-street, containing 6 rooms each,—3 on the ground floor and 3 above, with grates, and well furnished in every respect. They are cemented in front and have venetian blinds, and the whole are slated.

In the rear of the yard, and having entrance by a back lane is a

TWO-STORY HOUSE,
built of rubble stone, containing 4 rooms, with water-closets in the yard complete, with stone cesspools. The whole place is fenced in, and the proprietor, who is residing in the last mentioned house, will afford every information.

The 2 six-roomed Houses, fronting Botany-street, are only just completed, but can be let immediately at 35s. or 40s. per week.

Parties are invited to inspect the premises, being the third and fourth houses from the Court Houses.

To be put up in separate Lots,

Mr. Mort begs to draw the attention of parties having money to invest to this fine opportunity of purchasing new houses of a most tenantable description. Situated in a healthy position, they are also convenient to the busy parts of the city, and, in the present dearth of lodgings, would pay well as boarding-houses.

They are put up in separate lots to enable parties on the look out for residences to secure a home, as it is a self-evident fact that rents will rule much higher than at present.

DARLING DOWNS.
SHEEP AND CATTLE.
By order of the Curator of Intestate Estates and with the consent of the remaining partner, J. G. Ewer, Esq.
DAY OF SALE, FRIDAY, 12TH AUGUST.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on Friday, the 12th August,

The following Sheep and Cattle:

Sheep ..	2,200	Ewes, to lamb in September
	1,400	2½ years' old Ewes, with about 1,200 March Lambs given in
	1,200	2 and 3 year-old Wethers
	150	Rams
	4,150	Mixed Sheep, from 12 months to 2 years old
Total ..	9,100	more or less.

Cattle.—About 240 head, on the run, with the right of brand given in to about 50 head running on the Wieambilla Creek.

The runs are those well known as
WOMBO FOREST,
WEIONBILLA, or YAMO,
WIEAMBILLA,
And UPPER WIEAMBILLA,
and may be described as follows:

Wombo Forest, about 30 miles below Warra on the south side of the Condamine.

Weionbilla, or Yamo, on the north side of the Condamine—the two stations capable of depasturing 12,000 sheep.

Wieambilla, adjoining block to Wombo Forest, capable of depasturing about 4000 sheep.

Upper Wieambilla, adjoining block to the above, capable of depasturing about 4000 sheep.

The whole four runs are in one block, and watered by the Condamine, Wieambilla Creek, and Ewer's Creek. The head station is on the Condamine, at Wambo Forest. The country throughout is fine open forest land, and the sheep can be run in flocks of 2000, and do well.

The stations are sound and healthy, and the locality one of the finest in New South Wales for sheep farming; and the assessment being taken at the minimum rate, the above runs will carry a far larger number of sheep than above stated.

THE IMPROVEMENTS
comprise, on the Head Station,

A NEAT COTTAGE, built of slabs, grooved top and bottom, shingled and floored, containing 5 rooms,

With KITCHEN,
STORES,
And THREE HUTS.
A WOOL SHED AND PRESS,
And TWO PADDOCKS, containing 50 or 60 acres of land.

A STOCK YARD to hold about 400 head of cattle.

And
on the Out-stations
SIX HUTS.

The following articles on the stations are to be taken at the prices fixed:—
2 drays, 20 good working bullocks with gear complete, tarpaulins, one cart, and set of harness—for £220.
9 broken-in horses, at £12 each.
21 mixed lot of horses, at £8 each.

And the supplies on the station, at the time of delivery of the stock, to be taken at a valuation.

Mr. Mort begs to call the particular attention of parties on the look-out for valuable sheep stations, to the opportunity now offered of securing the same in the finest district in the colony of New South Wales, and which cannot be surpassed by any other, either for salubrity, soundness of the Runs, or respectability of the Squatters.

The Stations are most compact, forming one series of Runs, well-watered and well-grassed, situated about 30 miles from the celebrated Runs of Warra Warra.

The wool has always been shipped at Moreton Bay, to which port there is a first-rate road.

RENCHARD TERRACE, WOOLLOOMOOLOO.
HOUSES and COTTAGES, in Crown and Palmer streets, Woolloomooloo.
Day of Sale—TUESDAY, the 23rd August.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on TUESDAY, the 23rd instant,

The following valuable Properties:

TRENCHARD TERRACE, PALMER STREET,
consisting of seven houses, built in a row on a piece of land having a frontage of 90 feet to Palmer-street by a depth of 55 feet to Liverpool-street.

Each house contains six rooms, two on the basement, two on the ground floor, and two on the first floor. They are all built of stone, and slated.

There are yards in the rear having access by a lane, and a never failing supply of water in two wells.

Each house has a verandah, and the whole are well built and neatly finished; let to respectable tenants at 35s. each per week; and immediate possession can be given.

TWO HOUSES IN CROWN-STREET, on a block of land having a frontage of 30 feet to Crown-street, by a depth of 90 feet to a lane behind.

These houses contain four rooms each—two on the ground floor and two on the first floor. They are built of stone and stuccoed in front, neatly finished, with venetian shutters, and well built in every respect.

There are yards in the rear, with a
WELL OF WATER AND A PUMP.
Let to respectable tenants, at 30s. each per week.

Immediate possession can be given.

On the back of the above piece of ground, and fronting the side lane, are erected

FOUR COTTAGES,
each containing two rooms, one above and one below, built of stone, and well finished, with a yard in the rear of each, and having the use of the above pump and well, the water of which has never been known to fail.

These cottages are at present let to weekly tenants, at 15s. each per week, and immediate possession can be given.

Mr. Mort begs to draw the attention of leaseholders generally to the eligible opportunity now offered of selecting a first rate dwelling house in a respectable neighbourhood. The buildings are in first-rate condition, the proprietor having taken a pride in keeping up the respectability of his property. Mechanics who feel the pressure of house rent would do well to inspect the cottages above mentioned, as the distance is so trifling from the wharves and busy parts of the metropolis, and the proprietor has decided upon submitting the property to meet the demands of the many enquiring for dwelling houses.

IN SEPARATE LOTS,

CLIFTON COTTAGE, WAVERLEY.
Day of Sale, TUESDAY, 16th August.

The Cottage is only just completed, and has not been occupied. It is built of stone, and contains seven rooms of the following dimensions—
1—18 feet by 12 feet
2—14 feet 9 by 12 feet
2—12 feet by 12 feet
1—11 feet by 12 feet
1—12 feet by 8 feet
With a verandah in front.

The Out-offices are erected of hardwood and weather-boarded, and consist of Stables, Coach-house, and other buildings.

The situation is elevated, and commands an extensive and delightful view on every side; the locality is healthy, and the distance from Sydney but trifling, over a first-rate road.

Mr. Mort begs to direct the attention of the numerous applicants for residences to the good opportunity now offered for securing a comfortable home, perfectly new, in a first-rate neighbourhood, and healthy position.

The proprietor has been offered £100 per annum for the lease of this cottage, but a larger rental could be procured if the purchaser does not feel inclined to occupy it.

First-rate Hotel or Boarding House, Wynyard Square.
Lease for 3, 7, 10, or 14 years.
Day of Sale, TUESDAY, 16th August.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on TUESDAY, 16th August, at 11 o'clock,

The lease for such term as may be agreed upon, of

The new and extensive Premises recently erected by Mr. Carter, and situated in Wynyard Square, at the junction of York-street and Erskine-street.

The building contains 14 rooms, with large cellarage. The rooms are commodious and well planned, with reference to convenience, and finished in a superior style with marble mantelpieces and register stoves throughout.

The house has two fronts—the northern side facing the site of the New Post Office, which will be commenced upon immediately; the eastern side facing Wynyard Square.

The house is particularly adapted for a first-class hotel, being on the route to the various steam company's wharves, and will command a first-rate business. The bar alone may be calculated to pay the rent.

The capabilities of the house are well suited for a family hotel, which, with the business of a wholesale wine and spirit merchant, would ensure a rapid fortune.

The site of the building cannot be surpassed, as the situation is very elevated, and bounded on two sides by large plots of ground, one of which—the Post Office site—will be only partially built upon, and the other—Wynyard-square—will be retained as a promenade or place of recreation.

The purchaser has the option of a long lease, the advantages of which will be apparent when the new General Post Office is erected and business drawn to that quarter.

SPLENDID WHARF PROPERTY, DARLING HARBOUR,
Nearly One and a-half Acres of Land.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on FRIDAY, the 26th August,

The following valuable property—

The extensive Wharf, Stores, and Buildings known as Brodie and Craig's Wharf, situate at the foot of Bathurst-street, and entered upon from Barker-street, with

TWO WATER FRONTAGES,
the western front to DARLING HARBOUR
being 226 feet,
and the southern front being 237 feet; and the depth of the whole block, from east to west, being about 290 feet.

Nearly the whole property is filled up, and has a substantial sea wall to the water, rendering the Wharf one of the finest in the city of Sydney.

The Improvements are as follows:—

THREE HOUSES FRONTING BARKER-STREET, faithfully and substantially built, each containing five rooms, two attics, detached kitchen, and yard, with private entrance in the rear. They are built of brick, and were erected for the accommodation of the firm, who spared no expense in making them comfortable and convenient. On the Wharf is

AN EXTENSIVE TWO-STORY STORES,
80 feet by 15 feet, erected of hardwood timber and weather-boarded; attached to which is a

COAL YARD,
80 feet by 20 feet; also, a range of
WORK SHOPS,
two stories high, 73 feet by 20 feet; attached to which is a large TIMBER YARD, 96 feet by 76 feet; independent of which there are stables, engineers' shops and other buildings too numerous to particularise; but being in the heart of Sydney intending purchasers can easily inspect the premises and judge for themselves.

A Timber Slip or Basin has also been constructed to facilitate the landing of heavy timber; and notwithstanding the mass of buildings already enumerated, a large space of ground is still vacant for the erection of ADDITIONAL STORES and WAREHOUSES, so urgently needed for the increasing commerce induced by the gold discoveries and the flow of immigration arising therefrom.

Mr. Mort, in offering a property of this nature for public competition in the heart of the metropolis, feels inclined to let the public inspect the premises, and judge of the intrinsic merits of the property, without any comment from him; but at this peculiar moment there are circumstances operating so strongly in favour of extensive waterside premises, that a few remarks may not be out of place.

Vessel after vessel arrives in the harbour, and scarcely any notice is taken of the gradual augmentation of shipping in the waters of Port Jackson by the citizens of Sydney; but the party who has been absent from the metropolis only a few months exclaims with astonishment on his return—"What a host of vessels in the harbour!" Already is the want of wharfage accommodation strongly felt, and the inconveniences arising therefrom are daily increasing. The property now offered has the peculiar advantage of a gradual and easy ascent from the water side to the main thoroughfare of the city; and the day is not distant, when the head of Darling Harbour, like the Sydney Cove, will be one Circular Wharf, with the additional advantages of immediate access to the centre of the metropolis—thus securing the principal portion of the traffic brought into Sydney for shipment by the

SYDNEY RAILROAD.
It may be safely asserted that anything in the shape of a wharf will be readily occupied, and every store well filled with merchandise before another year passes. It must be so; and the proprietor of a property like this may take the world easy. His fortune will be made.

The attention of the MERCHANTS OF MELBOURNE
is particularly called to this important sale, as so fine an opportunity seldom occurs of securing a water side property complete, where a large vessel can haul alongside and discharge her cargo into secure stores without any delay or expense of carriage.

FREEHOLD CITY PROPERTY.
Day of Sale, FRIDAY, August 26.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on FRIDAY, August 26, the following first-rate and eligible City Properties, either in one lot or divided. They are situated in Windmill and Kent streets.

Lot 1.—A two-storied stone-built House, containing five rooms and attached kitchen, having 35 feet frontage to Windmill-street, with a depth of 40 feet, with back entrance. This House is now and has been for several years occupied by Mr. Wingfield, a retail butcher.

Lot 2 is a large two-storied stone-built House, situated at the corner of Kent and Windmill streets, having a frontage to the former of 42 feet 10 inches, and to the latter of 45 feet, and contains eleven rooms, including cellarage and kitchen. These extensive premises were formerly known as "the Napoleon Inn," but for the two last years, as the "Cheshire Cheese," and are tenanted by Mr. Hill, a respectable innkeeper.

The above houses command a beautiful view of the Harbour, from which they, on account of their situation, can never be shut out.

Lot 3 is a weather-boarded verandah Cottage, having a frontage of 40 feet to Kent-street, by a depth of 80 feet, and containing four rooms, detached kitchen, large shed and yard, in which are smiths' workshops.

⁂ The above properties, on account of their favourable situation, require no particular recommendation from the Auctioneer. They stand in a thickly populated and increasing neighbourhood, in the immediate vicinity of the wharves of Fort-street, and Millers' Point, and therefore enjoy the advantage of the profitable traffic daily increasing in this improving part of the City. The wharf of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company is within a very short distance of the above houses.

THE STATION OF "MAROUAN,"
In the New England District, together with about 5000 SHEEP.
By order of J. H. Puleston, Esq.

MR. MORT has received instructions to sell by public auction, at his Rooms, Pitt-street, on WEDNESDAY, 31st August, at 11 o'clock,

THE STATION OF MAROUAN,
with about 5000 Sheep.

The Station of "Marouan" is situated in the Beardie district, New England, about 42 miles from the township of "Armidale," on the Mail Road to the Darling Downs and Moreton Bay Districts.

THE GRAZING CAPABILITIES are of a high character, being well watered and capable of carrying 10,000 sheep. It is bounded by the well known stations of Messrs. Everett, Wauchope, Boyd, and others.

THE SHEEP
are all fine woolled and perfectly sound, and principally the X Y Z stock, the wool of which is so celebrated.

They are mostly young sheep, and the ewes will lamb in October; a number of the rams were selected this season by the present proprietor from the celebrated stock of William Dangar, Esq., and Captain Ditmas, and a large proportion of the wethers are in excellent condition and fit for market.

THE IMPROVEMENTS,
which are unusually extensive, comprise
A superior dwelling-house
Detached kitchen and other offices
Overseer's cottage, two gardens
A public store, spacious wool-shed
Stables and groom's hut, excellent stockyard
A grass paddock of 200 acres
Two cultivation paddocks
A blacksmith's forge and hut, and Shepherds' huts

The dwelling-house is well built, with drawing and dining rooms 16 feet by 15 feet, with a good verandah, and is well adapted to a family of respectability, being situated in a healthy locality and agreeable neighbourhood. The original cost of the improvements which have been lately effected was upwards of £1700.

THE PUBLIC STORE,
well known as the Ben Lomond Store, is well supplied with goods of every description, and being in a central position on the mail road, with proper management, the profits ought to pay the whole expenses of the station.

THE AGRICULTURAL CAPABILITIES of the station are first-rate, and well adapted for the growth of wheat and other grain, and the purchaser, by exercising his pre-emptive right to 160 acres, could realise a large profit annually by the sale of his farm produce. The station is well situated for a steam mill to be erected with advantage.

Mr. Mort begs to direct the attention of parties on the look-out for stations and stock to the desirable investment now offered, and the certainty of realizing a large portion of the purchase-money so soon after taking possession, by the clip of wool. There can be no doubt but that shortly stations like this will be in great demand, as a means of investing money, and the prices of sheep will increase with the influx of capitalists, and the tide of immigration.

Terms at sale.

This station and stock are sold in consequence of the projected departure of the proprietor to England. 1014
